Sg Business Wor Op 62:

International Business Risk Darryl S. L. Jarvis, 2003 International Business Risk is an attempt to help investors and students of contemporary Asian affairs navigate the risk environments of Asia Using highly relevant information and analytical techniques the 2002 volume analyses the political economic regulatory and security environments of 12 Asian countries Each country is assessed for its political and economic trends investment risks and opportunities in a way that is clear concise and easily accessible The handbook conveys forecast information through a series of charts graphs and boxed summaries of data making it a handy reference guide for all readers Business, Government and Labor Linda Y C Lim, 2017-12-07 Business Government and Labor in the Economic Development of Singapore and Southeast Asia analyzes the inter linked and evolving roles of private sector business government public policy and labor markets in the economic development of Singapore and its Southeast Asian neighborhood It does this through 16 essays written by Prof Linda Y C Lim an early and long established scholar of these subjects and published over a 35 year period For Singapore often considered the world s most successful economy the essays highlight the determining role of government s industrial and social policy through to the present day when the growth model of the past faces many external market and domestic resource constraints In the rest of Southeast Asia in contrast the essays explore how private sector business dominated by the locally domiciled ethnic Chinese minority thrived and drove economic growth in underdeveloped markets with imperfect institutions and consider if and how this might change with China s increasing presence in the regional economy A final set of essays analyzes the forces underlying women s employment from labor intensive Southeast Asian export factories in the 1980s to Singapore s foreign labor dependent economy and its current productivity challenges Taken together the essays show how government business and labor interact in the process of economic development Co-operative Structures in Global Business Gordon H. Boyce, 2002-01-04 Using a series of twelve historical case studies that are based on extensive archival research this book explains why firms succeed or fail in communicating or transferring knowledge and discovering new expertise By analysing how workable trade offs between opposing forces have been achieved in the past this study provides a set of guidelines for executives who embark upon inter firm projects Institutions and Economic Growth in Asia Flora Huang, Horace Yeung, 2018-03-20 This book explores the role of institutions in economic growth looking in particular at specific Asian countries and at particular cities within those countries It considers a wide range of factors besides institutions including the law cultural factors and overall government arrangements The differences between the countries studied are highlighted and the impact of these differences assessed the impact of English common law on arrangements in Hong Kong Singapore and Malaysia sharia law in Malaysia the differing lengths of time of colonial rule the extent to which Chinese family businesses control an economy Also studied are the degree to which the law is effectively applied and a range of other social economic and cultural factors The book s conclusions as to which factors have the greatest impact will be of considerable interest to economists of Asia and those interested in economic growth more widely World-Class Negotiating Donald W. Hendon, Rebecca Angeles Hendon, 1990-07-30 Presents the skills tactics styles and strategies every negotiator needs to compete in the international marketplace Based on seminars conducted in 22 countries and packed with real life examples and fascinating anecdotes it shows how to negotiate anything anywhere Explains the six stages of negotiation and contains a compendium of 73 tactics and countermeasures including consideration of how differing cultural assumptions affect the negotiation process Singapore Business ,1993 Catalogue of Title-entries of Books and Other Articles Entered in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, Under the Copyright Law ...
