Shadow From Ladakh:

Shadow from Ladakh Bhabani Bhattacharya, 1969 The Novels of Bhabani Bhattacharya Monika Gupta, 2002 Bhabani Bhattacharya is one of the remarkable novelists in the realm of Indo English fiction. This anthology containing twenty articles by dedicated Indian scholars deals with almost all the significant aspects of Bhattacharya's fictional world. All the six novels focussed upon are So Many Hungers, Music Of Mohini, He Who Rides A Tiger, A Goddess Named Gold, Shadow From Ladakh, and A Dream In Hawaii. It is hoped that present critical study will be helpful to the teachers, research scholars and students for recent studies on Bhabani Bhattacharya.

Akademi Awarded Novels in English Mithilesh K. Pandey, 2003 Contributed articles Shadow from Ladakh Bhabani Bhattacharya, 1967 Modern Indian English Novel Manmohan Krishna Bhatnagar, 2003 The study is a painstaking probe into the unfolding of a hitherto ignored thematic and stylistic dimension of modern Indian English fiction beginning with an in-depth analysis of the political underpinnings. In the early phase the study moves to a scholarly critique of the same in the post-independence context. Indian English novel has been appraised as a human document chronicling most credibly the political vicissitudes of the people. In general the crippling nature of the popular creed has been isolated as the cause of the personal as well as the political tragedy. The critique discovers in Gandhism a liberating panacea which later got ossified into a myth. The differing perceptions in novels of the light at the end of the tunnel forms part of the next stage of the scholarly argument. Last but not the least the book examines the artistic modes of projection of the political motif. A refreshing insight into Indian English fiction, Indian socio-political psyche, the sociology of faith as well as the artistic amalgam of aesthetics and ideology in Indian literature. An invaluable source book for researchers, teachers and students of literature, politics, sociology and philosophy.

Gandhian Strain in the Indian English Novel Ambuj Kumar Sharma, 2004 Shadow from Ladakh, Etc Bhabani BHATTACHARYA, 1967 The Fiction of Bhabani Bhattacharya Kh. Kunjo Singh, Khangjrakpam Kunjo Singh, 2002 The book provides a general survey of the Indo-Anglian fiction and a detailed analysis of the prominent political fictions and the fiction of Bhabani Bhattacharya showing Bhattacharya's position and achievement in the domain of Indian fiction. The book studies his art of writing novels for political and social value. The book also dwells on the Indo-Anglian fiction of varied themes: social, political, nationalistic, diplomatic, cultural, etc. of pre and post-independence periods and shows the significant place of the Indian political novels and those of Bhabani Bhattacharya. The Indian content of these political novels has created a context for the study of Bhattacharya's novels. The book also makes a critique on Bhattacharya's six novels depicting contemporary social, political, economic and religious realities of India before and after independence. It also highlights his plea for the social and moral function of art and for reality and truth in literature and also his defending of the use of contemporary events as worthy subjects for writing novels. The author presents a perspective on Bhattacharya as an innovator and a

W. Hung,Tak-Wing Ngo,2025-10-01 Long before China promulgated the official One Belt One Road initiatives vast networks of cross border exchanges already existed across Asia and Eurasia The dynamics of such trade and resource flows have largely been outside state control and are pushed to the realm of the shadow economy The official initiative is a state driven attempt to enhance the orderly flow of resources across countries along the Belt and Road hence extending the reach of the states to the shadow economies This volume offers a bottom up view of the transborder informal exchanges across Asia and Eurasia and analyses its clash and mesh with the state orchestrated Belt and Road cooperation By undertaking a comparative study of country cases along the new silk roads the book underlines the intended and unintended consequences of such competing routes of connectivity on the socio economic conditions of local communities
