The Shadow of Dracula; Harker's Inheritance Corissa Baker,2012-05-04 The Shadow of Dracula Harker's Inheritance is an intense tale of horror revenge and a test of love's strength in the midst of a soul weary fight to stop the return of the oldest most powerful vampire Dracula Fans of Bram Stoker's classic novel can sink their teeth into this story and revisit a world of vampires hunters and a small circle of friends knit together by fear devotion and even romance In the final note of the classic Dracula Bram Stoker introduces a character the son of Jonathan and Mina Harker This boy Quincey has grown up on tales of Count Dracula and the vampire hunter he is named after But he is grown up with something else a reoccurring palpable dread that haunts him Set in 1934

London The Shadow of Dracula Harker's Inheritance begins with Quincey Harker's journals much like Bram Stoker's Dracula does Modern fiction novel readers will appreciate the pace of danger mystery and the classic interplay of hunter and vampire As Quincey writes we learn that something sinister is closing in around him an inescapable threat And no one is talking not even once trusted friends He seeks answers but will he survive finding them Fearing that a vampire is hunting him Quincey begins to focus less on his work and more on the dangers encircling him A classic romance enters the novel when Quincey meets a young woman from America with a connection to the vampire hunters in Stoker's Dracula Adding to the group is another powerful mysterious figure a man guided by the writings of Abraham Van Helsing But who is this stranger and why does he know so much about Quincey Differing from popular vampire books The Shadow of Dracula Harker's Inheritance leaves vampires as blood thirsty hunters But as in most vampire novels romance is powerful element When Quincey is attacked and seriously injured it is his new love that gives him strength and the will to keep fighting The writings of Van Helsing and the secret book which is in reference to Bram Stoker's Dracula become crucial as this newly formed group of vampire hunters desperately seek a way to save Quincey's life his soul and the city of London This is more than your run of the mill vampire fiction novel This is a book committed to literary integrity and a well researched historical setting Written with British spelling and a distinctly English conversational tone The Shadow of Dracula Harker's Inheritance stands tall among its vampire novel counterparts This literary fiction incorporates Dracula Bram Stoker's classic into its story with firm respect to its dates characters and the horror of the Count Dracula
