O Connor A number of literary works from the beginning of the nineteenth to the end of the twentieth centuries are taken up in order to illustrate the inherent links or family resemblances between the two modes with special reference to the way in which a Bakhtinian reading may facilitate our appreciation of their status within the canon These excursions into the House of Fantastic and Grotesque Fiction may be of interest not only to hardcore aficionados but also to philosophically minded readers in general in particular perhaps to those who have paid acute attention to debates on late twentieth and early twenty first century post structuralism and deconstruction where the classic positions of Foucault Derrida et al still appear to be relevant

Dragon Lore: Summons

Octavia Knight,2013-05-24 Entangled in a world of dragons immortals and magic where nothing and no one is what they seem seventeen year old Toni Avaria must embark on a life changing journey to save both the dragon and human race from a demon goddess and an impossible prophecy that could swallow the world in darkness Toni has always dreamed of living among the Viaxi dragons of the legendary Zalwa Realm And after barely escaping an unforeseen danger arriving at the Imarie Palace of dragons and meeting Bane Stormwing a Moon Dragon she believes her dreams have finally come true But there is an impending war looming over the dragons as the demon goddess Siamai threatens to destroy both the Zalwa Realm and the human world Soon Toni finds herself at the center of a century old prophecy and discovers that only she the Viaxi priestess can redeem the dragon race Now she must find the power to save herself and her companions from a world of death and chaos and deliver them to salvation before her own soul is damned

Nordicism and Modernity Gregers Einer Forssling,2020-11-28 This book offers a complete narrative of the development of Nordicism from its roots in the National Romantic movement of the late eighteenth century through to its most notorious manifestation in Nazi Germany and finally to the fragmented forms that still remain in contemporary society

It is distinctive in treating Nordicism as a phenomenon with its own narrative rather than as discreet episodes in works studying aspects of Eugenics Nationalism Nazism and the reception history of Old Norse culture It is also distinctive in applying to this narrative a framework of analysis derived from the parallel theories of Roger Griffin and Zygmunt Bauman to examine Nordicism as a process of myth creation protecting both the individual and society from the challenges and terror of an ever changing and accelerating state of modernity

Walking as Embodied Research Christian Ernssten, Nick Shepherd, 2024-09-30 In recent years walking has emerged as a methodological tool and as a conceptually exciting point of departure across a range of disciplines and practices This volume explores walking as a form of embodied research practice that offers fresh perspectives on key contemporary debates and areas of interest These include the climate emergency and the debate around the Anthropocene decolonial thinking and the struggle for social justice feminist and queer walking methodologies and the notion of the infraordinary and practices of everyday life Contributions to this volume are by scholars artists and practitioners drawn from a wide range of disciplines and fields and from across the Global South and North An overarching theme of the volume is the manner in which the act of walking brings the body into presence as a material part of the research process and the forms of attentiveness that this encourages Another theme is the intimate connection between the act of walking and the act of writing As familiar landscapes change under the weight of Anthropogenic environmental change walking becomes an act of witnessing and a spur to action Rather than being a singular activity walking itself is understood as a socially economically and politically constructed and contested act This volume will serve as a source of inspiration to readers from across the arts humanities and social sciences who are interested in walking methodologies and in new and sustainable research practices
