Shadow Screen Thomas Champion, 2016-05-18 My name is Peter Grant I didn't start out to save the world it just sort of happened I only wanted to win back the love of the woman who broke up with me She was chosen to work on this anthropological expedition to Bali an excellent place to rekindle the magic of romance I more or less invited myself along That wasn't the kind of magic I found While Gayle my ex was working on her tan beside a Balinese lagoon I was chasing down headhunters in the jungles of Irian Jaya She made the cocktail party circuit I buried the last King of the Torajan And while the lovely Ms O Conner got engaged to the Major Domo Demon of the Underworld I became the sorcerer's apprentice So you tell me how's a guy suppose to win a woman's heart if he can't spend any quality time with her I'm a child of my times an amalgamation of nature and nurture I did what any red blooded American male my age has learned to do I battled the evil lord of the universe to stop his union with the woman I love and saved all of mankind in the process You would think that would count for something wouldn't you Man has always known the gods the demons They are as real as the moon and stars From his first taste of the apple man recognized good and evil and honored and feared the gods they represent But someday we must ask how much of this is real and how much is just man's invention For Peter Grant the answer means everything

Grasping Shadows William Chapman Sharpe, 2017-08-04 What's in a shadow Menace seduction or salvation Immaterial but profound shadows lurk everywhere in literature and the visual arts signifying everything from the treachery of appearances to the unfathomable power of God From Plato to Picasso from Rembrandt to Welles and Warhol from Lord of the Rings to the latest video game shadows act as central players in the drama of Western culture Yet because they work silently artistic shadows often slip unnoticed past audiences and critics Conceived as an accessible introduction to this elusive phenomenon Grasping Shadows is the first book that offers a general theory of how all shadows function in texts and visual media Arguing that shadow images take shape within a common cultural field where visual and verbal meanings overlap William Sharpe ranges widely among classic and modern works revealing the key motifs that link apparently disparate works such as those by Fra Angelico and James Joyce Clementina Hawarden and Kara Walker Charles Dickens and Kumi Yamashita Showing how real world shadows have shaped the meanings of shadow imagery Grasping Shadows guides the reader through the techniques used by writers and artists to represent shadows from the Renaissance onward The last chapter traces how shadows impact the art of the modern city from Renoir and Zola to film noir and projection systems that capture the shadows of passers by on streets around the globe Extending his analysis to contemporary street art popular songs billboards and shadow theatre Sharpe demonstrates a practical way to grasp the dark side that looms all around us
