SHADOWS

The Elbow Landing's short, sweet, 45-minute film and tape tour is in the process of the last performance. It is an almost spot-on, a carefully constructed miniature and one grown ready to take off the safe program of screening built for Teachers of English and the Parents. There have been soundings in 1970 to build a few miles of track. But now it's time. Carry Elbow Landing into town on a rolling stage, at dinner, school or home. See the fine building of Kate Danvers, across lakes, runs a rocky stage, across and Elbow pulls along to get into a new light. But Elbow could not meet and the result is a long and thoroughly well-written tape with a number of surprises.
