The New Era of the New World Nations, 1927 Sunshine and Shadow in New York Matthew Hale Smith, 1868

Louisiana Buildings, 1720-1940 Jessie Poesch, Barbara SoRelle Bacot, 1997-08-01 The only New Deal program to continue into the 1990s the Historic American Buildings Survey has through the years drawn attention to the historical and artistic significance of buildings that contemporary taste might otherwise have ignored Louisiana Buildings 1720-1940 makes easily available the fruit of HABS's important and enduring efforts to record Louisiana's architectural heritage In the 1930s the Louisiana HABS team concentrated on public edifices and grand plantation complexes threatened by destruction. Later records of HABS include still other habitations of the common man as well as industrial structures. The project has yielded not only graphic and written documentation of the buildings many no longer standing but also new insights into the history of the state's architecture. An invaluable part of Louisiana Buildings 1720-1940 is the alphabetical listing of HABS structures in Louisiana both by familiar name and by parish. The listing by parish gives the location, the date of construction, the architect when known, and the current status of each building. It also presents drawings or photographs of many of the structures over 300 pictures in all. There are besides nine chapters by leading architectural historians who cover all aspects of Louisiana architecture: its Creole beginnings in the south of the state, the Appalachian folk style in the north, and developments on the plantation in the seventeenth century, urban setting, and in the modern era. Those chapters form an essential frame of reference for the data in the HABS listings and call attention to many other structures that are a part of the history of building in the Pelican State. Anyone interested in the state's architecture or history will find Louisiana Buildings indispensable.

Marie Adrien Persac Marie Adrien Persac, H. Parrott Bacot, 2000. Marie Adrien Persac 1823-1873 was a French-born Louisiana artist who worked in a range of mediums to produce a unique view of the lower Mississippi Valley at midcentury. In the first catalogued exhibition devoted solely to this multifaceted but overlooked talent, paintings, drawings, maps, and photographs from numerous holdings have been brought together to present fresh insights and reevaluate this artist's place in the annals of American history and material culture. Due in part to his broad talents, artist, cartographer, architect, civil engineer, photographer, and art teacher, Persac's work is of major importance to Southern history researchers and art historians. His paintings of south Louisiana plantation houses have captured that now varnished lifestyle in minute detail, approximating the exactitude of architectural drafting. Today this series is invaluable to scholars of the period, as is Persac's painting of a steamboat interior, the only one known to exist, and another French Opera House which burned to the ground in 1919.

In Custer's Shadow Ronald Hamilton Nichols, 2000. During the Battle of the Little Big Horn, five entire companies of the 7th Cavalry, including their leader George Armstrong Custer, were lost. For years the shadow of blame for the defeat has been cast upon Custer. What role did his subordinates play in the battle? Did they contribute to the Custer failure, or was he the only one to blame? In Custer's Shadow presents the complex life of Major Marcus Reno, Custer's second in command. Employing photographs and maps to help the reader visualize the text, Ronald H. Nichols unravels the controversy surrounding Reno's role in the battle and questions the scrutiny to which he was subjected in the years following.

Machiavelli's Shadow Paul Alexander, 2008-06-10. Karl Rove has come to personify scorched earth political tactics and merciless win at any cost trickery. His status as the so-called architect behind Bush's election victories has elevated him to a mythic kingmaker in the national imagination. Not since Mark Hanna, special assistant to President William McKinley, has someone not elected to public office played such a vital role in the governance of our nation We know the myth but who is the man In Machiavelli's Shadow the full unvarnished truth about the mastermind of the Bush administration is revealed as swirling scandals and Karl Rove's diminished power have freed people to speak candidly as never before Acclaimed author and veteran journalist Paul Alexander tracks Rove's journey from consummate outsider to presidential consigliere conducting firsthand interviews with A list sources who have never gone on the record about Rove before now The result is a gripping no holds barred account of the man whose insistence on politicizing any area on which he has advised the president from the war in Iraq to domestic issues like Social Security energy the environment and hotly controversial judicial matters has brought about his own fall from grace and an escalating crisis within the government and the nation Drawing on the author's extensive connections in the political arena and delving into all areas of Rove's life political business psychological and personal this book stands as the definitive portrait of one of the most fascinating figures ever to emerge on the American political scene

In the Shadow of Statues Mitch Landrieu, 2019-03-19 The New Orleans mayor who removed the Confederate statues confronts the racism that shapes us and argues for white America to reckon with its past A passionate personal urgent book from the man who sparked a national debate There is a difference between remembrance of history and reverence for it When Mitch Landrieu addressed the people of New Orleans in May 2017 about his decision to take down four Confederate monuments including the statue of Robert E Lee he struck a nerve nationally and his speech has now been heard or seen by millions across the country In his first book Mayor Landrieu discusses his personal journey on race as well as the path he took to making the decision to remove the monuments tackles the broader history of slavery race and institutional inequities that still bedevil America and traces his personal relationship to this history His father as state legislator and mayor was a huge force in the integration of New Orleans in the 1960s and 1970s Landrieu grew up with a progressive education in one of the nation's most racially divided cities but even he had to relearn Southern history as it really happened Equal parts unblinking memoir history and prescription for finally confronting America's most painful legacy In the Shadow of Statues contributes strongly to the national conversation about race in the age of Donald Trump at a time when racism is resurgent with seemingly tacit approval from the highest levels of government and when too many Americans have a misplaced nostalgia for a time and place that never existed
