Shadow Working in Project Management Joana Bértholo, 2017-07-06. Shadow Working in Project Management explores the tools and techniques available to get in touch with the Shadow aspects of self and collective to recognize how it manifests, how it can lead to conflict, and ways to address it. Despite being directed to managers and dedicated to the analyses of the managerial discourse, the tools and processes it proposes have universal relevance based on the fact that The Shadow is everywhere within everyone from the individual to the global scale.

Photographer's Mate 3 United States. Bureau of Naval Personnel, 1961. Shades and Shadows Jules Pillet, 1896. Making Media Jan Roberts-Breslin, 2012. Making Media takes the media production process and deconstructs it into its most basic components. Students will learn the basic concepts of media production: frame, sound, light, time, motion, sequencing, etc., and be able to apply them to any medium they choose. They will also become well grounded in the digital work environment and the tools required to produce media in the digital age. The companion Web site provides interactive exercises for each chapter, allowing students to explore the process of media production. The text is heavily illustrated and complete with sidebar discussions of pertinent issues.

Light and Shadow, 2016-02-22. Natural light portraiture is hugely popular. The light source is free, malleable, and available anywhere. Mastering its use requires a specific skill set, however. Fortunately, Tony Corbell is up to the task of showing readers how to harness its full power. He sets a foundation for mastering this powerful source, beginning with a discussion on how to set camera controls to ensure the right amount of light is allowed to strike the image sensor to create the portrait and how to read a histogram to ensure that a subject appropriate versus so-called correct exposure results Next he moves on to discuss light quantity and quality and how each can be modified and manipulated to produce dimensional lifelike portraits Readers will learn techniques for using hard soft light working with window light ensuring a proper white balance so that colors in the scene are true to life in the final image and adding or subtracting light to achieve the desired effect Corbell s images and instructions show readers how to produce the flattering highly salable portraits they re after indoors and out
