Persian Presence in Victorian Poetry

Taher-Kermani Reza Taher-Kermani, 2020-03-18 A study of the wealth of meanings that Persia real or imagined held for Victorian poetry Takes a broad interdisciplinary approach to a significant strand in the Oriental texture of Victorian poetry Contributes to a growing body of research on the process of cultural exchange between the West and the Orient Provides the first systematic index of nineteenth century Persianised poems Offers a distinctive mix of history and literature dealing with an array of texts ranging from ancient Greece to nineteenth century British travel writings The Persian Presence in Victorian Poetry surveys the variety of ways in which Persia and the multitude of ideological historical cultural and political notions that it embodied were received circulated and appropriated Providing the first systematic index of nineteenth century poems that were in any way involved with Persia the book explores its presence across a broad range of works incorporating literary historical and cultural material

Shahnameh Ferdowsi, 2017-12-12 Vividly translated and lushly illustrated this edition of the Persian epic Shahnameh is fully illuminated for new audiences Ferdowsi's classic poem Shahnameh is part myth part history beginning with the legend of the birth of the Persian nation and its tumultuous history it contains magical birds and superhuman heroes and centuries long battles Written over 1 000 years ago it was meant to protect Persian collective memory amidst a turbulent sea of cultural storms Originally written in couplets the translation and adaptation by Ahmad Sadri retells the mythological tales in prose format The spectacular illustrations in this edition were created from elements culled from thousands of manuscripts lithographs and miniatures dating from the thirteenth through the nineteenth centuries and each panel becomes a new work of art an exquisite collage of traditional forms

Shahnama Robert

Hillenbrand, 2017-07-05 Shahnama The Visual Language of the Persian Book of Kings presents the first comprehensive examination of the interplay between text and image in the celebrated Persian national epic the Shahnama written by the poet Firdausi of Tus The Shahnama is one of the longest poems ever composed and recounts the history of Iran from the dawn of time to the Muslim Arab conquests of the seventh century AD There is no Persian text in prose or poetry which has been so frequently and lavishly illustrated Offering fresh insights through a range of varied art historical approaches to the Shahnama the essays in this volume reveal how the subtle alterations in text and image serve to document changes in taste and style and can be understood as reflections of the changing role of the national epic in the imagination of Iranians and the equally changing messages often political in nature which the familiar stories were made to convey over the centuries

The Shahnama of Firdausi Arthur George Warner, Edmond Warner, 2013-11-05 This is Volume IV of a collection of thirteen on Persia Originally published in 1905 this text looks at the first part of the SH HN MA OF FIRDAUS To the vast majority of English readers the Sh hn ma seems hardly to be known even by name even though it is a great Persian Epic

The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available
