Shaing Pastoral Care In The Parish:

Pastoral Care in Context John Patton, 2005-01-01 An expert in the field of pastoral care John Patton demonstrates that pastoral care is a ministry of the church He focuses on the community of faith as an authorizer and source of care and upon the relationship between the pastor and a caring community Patton identifies and compares three paradigms of pastoral care the classical the clinical pastoral and the communal contextual This third paradigm emphasizes the caring community and the various contexts for care rather than focusing on pastoral care as the work of the ordained pastor Guide for Celebrating the Pastoral Care of the Sick J. Philip Horrigan, 2019 A thorough and pastoral walk through Pastoral Care of the Sick Rites of Anointing and Viaticum Sharing Pastoral Care in the Parish David Prior, 1980 Complexities of Spiritual Care in Plural Societies Anne Hege Grung, 2022-11-07 This volume contributes to an emerging field that could be referred to as plural spiritual care and chaplaincy It s innovative approach brings together contributions from a broad range of contexts and religious traditions and includes empirical work and conceptual explorations It helps to fill the gap between practices and developments related to plural spiritual care and chaplaincy in the scholarly discourse Wakefield Diocese Kate Taylor, 2013-01-15 The 125 years since the Diocese of Wakefield was formed have seen immense changes both within the Church and society As part of its anniversary celebrations and as the diocese contemplates a changing future this illustrated guide charts the story of the diocese its people its worship and mission from 1888 to the present day The Pastor as Evangelist ,1984-01-01 From a minister professor and recognized leader in the field of evangelism comes a challenge to pastors to take a new look at their mission Richard Stall Armstrong invites pastors to put on evangelistic glasses to perceive what it means to be a pastor evangelist in terms of personal relationships and in light of the various factors that define evangelism Clearly and compellingly Armstrong shows how to take the responsibility for evangelism seriously He analyzes in a concrete way the many contexts of evangelism the difference between witnessing to the young and the old to individuals and groups on the telephone or on television He counsels pastors to adopt not a particular method but rather a style that is nondogmatic that blends consistency with flexibility and above all one that reflects the integrity and power of the Christian message Biblically based theologically sound and vocationally relevant this book is full of useful ideas and practical suggestions that will benefit pastors professors and seminarians Sourcebook for Sundays and Seasons 2008 Todd Williamson, 2007 The Living Church ,1994 Pastoral Care in Hospitals, Second Edition Neville A. Kirkwood, 2005-10 Bringing comfort and concern to the bedside of the sick or dying is a challenge for lay people and clergy alike In this practical guide Neville Kirkwood shares his wisdom gleaned from some twenty years of experience as a hospital chaplain on the art of hospital visitation This classic handbook is now updated with an all new section addressing best practices for hospital chaplains Pastoral Care in Hospitals with additional sections addressed to clergy and trained lay pastoral workers as well as ordinary lay people who simply want to visit their fellow parishioners shows visitors ways to make the encounter meaningful and enriching to the patient Kirkwood guides readers through the minefield of hospital visits from false heartiness to too much talking and offers a theology of visitation that can guide both professionals and laity in their ministry A variety of exercises and a section of prayers for specific circumstances make this a must have resource for all who work with the sick and dying and an excellent text for course work

African American Pastoral Care and Counseling: Edward P. Wimberly, 2006-05-01 Ed Wimberly's important book links politics and pastoral care two practices I haven't seen connected very often Wimberly's book comes at a critical time in the life of theological education and religious practice in America There is a raging debate afoot within black church culture about the appropriate balance of personal and political construal of the Christian message This book could advance a much needed approach to a complicated conversation about the kind of pastoral care best suited for people who have known racism sexism poverty and religious abuse Wimberly's dedication warmth intelligence and charisma will transform this book into a tool for opening closed minds and closing open arguments that do not liberate Robert M Franklin Presidential Distinguished Professor of Social Ethics Candler School of Theology Emory University It is because pastoral care and counseling facilitate person agency and efficacy personal social and political empowerment and transformation that African American pastoral care and counseling are inherently political processes contends Edward Wimberly In African American Pastoral Care and Counseling The Politics of Oppression and Empowerment Wimberly outlines the theological anthropology that undergirds the practices of care and the practices of self as holistic processes Wimberly shows those who engage in pastoral counseling with African Americans how to navigate around the negative self images identities and stories into which they have been recruited in order to liberate themselves to discern how to best make use of their personal and political agency and efficacy

Pastoral Care Before the Parish John Blair, Richard Sharpe, 1992 This book examines the pastoral and sacramental work of the early medieval church in the British Isles It provides a synthesis of recent scholarship which has uncovered new evidence about the organisation and structure of the early church and the close relations between monks and clergy and between the Roman and Celtic churches It shows how theological ideals were translated into pastoral work and demonstrates the short comings of the national church approach to the history of early British and Irish Christianity It will become the foundation for most future work on this central field of early medieval history

Good News Parish Leadership Michael L. Papesh, 2008 For many Catholics today the leaders described above don't exist For just as many parish leadership does not equal good news But Father Michael Papesh believes it certainly CAN and here he offers guidelines tools and ideas for making it happen By sharing pastoral leadership and structuring power distribution he says a parish can enjoy be mirror proclaim and bring to the world the transforming goodness of God And thus he offers a whole system model for pastoral leadership that is theologically grounded in the hospitality of God as revealed through the ministry of Jesus

Hope for the Church Bob Jackson, 2002 In Hope for the Church the author takes a challenging look at recent church attendance figures and sets out to interpret their message for today's Church Bob Jackson highlights areas where the Church is growing analyses causes of decline and outlines strategic responses to the problem of declining numbers Hope for the Church is in essence a plea to the church not to lose heart but to be pro active in the face of rapid social change Features up to date analysis of church attendance figures and practical growth strategies for all levels of leadership For Life Abundant Dorothy C. Bass, Craig Dykstra, 2008-04-29 Bass and Dykstra have written extensively and collaboratively on Christian Practices arguing that the what Christians have done faithfully over time constitutes a life giving way of life and that this living of Christianity is more primary to what it means to be Christian than doctrinal confession that our confessions spring from faithful living rather than the other way around This book contains numerous essays that take up the question of Christian Practices and ministry the preparation of ministers theological education etc in a post Enlightenment understanding of the relationship of practice and head knowledge Because the book is the result of a community conversation it doesn't have a clear thesis but it models its conviction that reflection on theology arises from community conversation around our life in discipleship together An extremely helpful beginning to a conversation about ministry practices of faith clergy preparation etc as the time has come to integrate the kind of learning that comes in the classroom with the kind that only comes from living the faith with others Amazon com
