Shakespeare, Cinema, Counter-Culture Ailsa Ferguson, 2016-06-23 Addressing for the first time Shakespeare's place in counter cultural cinema this book examines and theorizes counter hegemonic postmodern and post punk Shakespeare in late 20th and early 21st century film Drawing on a diverse range of case studies Grant Ferguson presents an interdisciplinary approach that offers new theories on the nature and application of Shakespearean appropriations in the light of postmodern modes of representation The book considers the nature of the Shakespearean inter text in subcultural political contexts concerning the politicized aesthetics of a Shakespearean body in pieces the carnivalesque and notions of Shakespeare as counter hegemonic weapon or source of empowerment Representative films use Shakespeare and his accompanying cultural capital to challenge notions of capitalist globalization dominant socio cultural ideologies and hegemonic modes of expression In response to a post modern culture saturated with logos and semiotic abbreviations many such films play with the emblematic imagery and references of Shakespeare's texts These curious appropriations have much to reveal about the elusive nature of intertextuality in late postmodern culture and the battle for cultural ownership of Shakespeare As there has yet to be a study that isolates and theorizes modes of Shakespearean production that specifically demonstrate resistance to the social political ideological aesthetic and cinematic norms of the Western world this book expands the dialogue around such texts and interprets their patterns of appropriation adaptation and representation of Shakespeare

Merchants, Barons, Sellers and Suits Christa Mahalik, 2010-08-11 Merchants Barons Sellers and Suits The Changing Images of the Businessman through Literature originally began as a conversation about a hybrid course at Quinnipiac University Its purpose was to take an online English course for non traditional business majors and create a theme that would be relevant to the business world Being given the task to create this course from the ground up was exciting and intriguing There turned out to be a lot more material that could be used for this theme than previously thought To gauge the temperature of the topic a panel was set up with the theme of businessmen or women and their changing image through literature At the 2009 NeMLA Northeast Modern Language Association conference in Boston the panel was held and many ideas such as some of the ones presented in this book were discussed A secondary theme evolved out of the construction of the first Participants discussed the environment as a catalyst in the change of what a person actually thinks a businessman or woman looks like Many of these images were formed based upon pop culture such as the traveling salesman in the Looney Tunes cartoons who sells brushes door to door and hails from Walla Walla Washington Others were based on the images read about in books such as Willy Loman from Death of a Salesman The essays included in this volume presented by doctoral candidates and scholars from across a range of geographical regions and disciplines result in a collection that investigates the idea of the changing image of the businessman throughout literature both in America and in Europe The arrangement of the collection is a comparative timeline allowing the changing images of business to evolve with each essay
