Shakespeare Productions Of Max Reinhardt Studies In Theatre Arts V 31:

Choice, 2008 European Theatre Performance Practice, 1750-1900 Jim Davis, 2016-12-05 This volume contains key articles and chapters which represent both seminal and innovative scholarship on European theatre performance practice from 1750 to 1900. The selected topics focus on acting and performance staging including set design and lighting and audiences and are approached with a broad perspective as well as with in-depth focussed analysis. The volume captures the rich dynamic and variegated nature of European theatre throughout the late eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and provides a carefully selected body of significant texts on this important period of theatre history. An International Annotated Bibliography of Strindberg Studies 1870-2005: The plays Michael Robinson, 2008 This copiously annotated bibliography documents and examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known. These include his prose fiction and poetry, his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts, most notably his painting. It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material, all of this in several languages. Organised generically and by subject and individual work, the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods. It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material. It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross-reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity. The bibliography is published in three parts: Volume 1 General Studies 978 0 947623 81 4 and Volume 3 Prose Poetry Miscellaneous 978 0 947623 83 8 are also now available. Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia, Norwich.
