

A scenic landscape at sunset or sunrise. The sky is filled with warm, golden light from the low sun, casting a glow over the scene. In the foreground, there's a body of water reflecting the light. A winding road or path leads from the bottom right towards the horizon. The background features rolling hills and mountains under the soft light of the setting or rising sun.

We have all known the long loneliness and we have learned that the only solution is love and that love comes with community.

Long Loneliness

Charles Marsh, Shea Tuttle, Daniel P.
Rhodes

Long Loneliness:

The Long Loneliness Dorothy Day, 1996-12-06 A compelling autobiographical testament to the spiritual pilgrimage of a woman who in her own words dedicated herself to bring about the kind of society where it is easier to be good The Long Loneliness Dorothy Day, 1959 Can I Get a Witness? Charles Marsh, Shea Tuttle, Daniel P. Rhodes, 2019-02-28 How do we transform American Culture through our religious convictions Discover here the compelling stories of thirteen pioneers for social justice who engaged in peaceful protest and gave voice to the marginalized working courageously out of their religious convictions to transform American culture Their prophetic witness still speaks today Comprising a variety of voices Catholic and Protestant gay and straight men and women of different racial backgrounds these activist witnesses represent the best of the church's peacemakers community builders and inside agitators Written by select authors Can I Get a Witness showcases vibrant storytelling and research enriched narrative to bring these significant peculiar people to life CONTRIBUTORS SUBJECTS Daniel P Rhodes on Cesar Chavez Donyelle McCray on Howard Thurman Grace Y Kao on Yuri Kochiyama Peter Slade on Howard Kester Nichole M Flores on Ella Baker Carlene Bauer on Dorothy Day Heather A Warren on John A Ryan Becca Stevens on William Stringfellow W Ralph Eubanks on Mahalia Jackson Susan M Glisson and Charles H Tucker on Lucy Randolph Mason Soong Chan Rah on Richard Twiss David Dark on Daniel Berrigan M Therese Lysaught on Mary Stella Simpson Theology as Autobiography Colby Dickinson, 2020-03-17 Autobiographical writings on faith frequently come from the lives of ordinary persons whose struggles with faith are often lived at the margins of the church academy and society Yet these voices have the potential to reshape the ways in which each of these fields function To find out what it means to stand before God with all of one's humanity on display is to engage in not only the act of confession but to demonstrate a bold theological reflection that needs to be more explicitly understood By turning to spiritual autobiographies as theological source texts we learn to place our emphasis where it matters most on the people whose lives of faith move us deeply and cause us to re-examine our own lives in light of their witness Moving through a range of ancient early modern and contemporary spiritual writers in order to demonstrate a profound connection that unites them all this book portrays how a critical self-examination of one's most personal internal fractures our poverty as it were is the only way to develop a life of faith the dual meaning of the word confession which expresses both a revealing of one's sins or brokenness and the articulation of what one believes A Short Guide to Spiritual Formation Alex Sosler, 2024-05-28 Christianity Today 2025 Book Award Christian Living Spiritual Formation Outreach 2025 Resource of the Year Spiritual Growth With so many distractions in life we must be deliberate in our search for God and Sosler's book gives masterful guidance Christianity Today In a society always seeking the new and novel Christians can become more grounded and mature through a retrieval of our common tradition Alex Sosler sets forth the transcendentals of truth goodness and beauty along with community to help readers follow the way of Jesus Weaving together church history theology and devotional practice Sosler offers a holistic introduction to spiritual formation encompassing biblical truth the pursuit of the good life the contemplation of God and communal belonging Each section includes a biblical and historical precedent for the tradition and highlights an exemplar from church history Augustine on truth Dorothy Day on goodness Teresa of vila on beauty and Dietrich Bonhoeffer on church commitment and community This accessible book provides avenues for a broader and deeper spirituality that can shape the complexity of our souls It is ideal for undergraduate students and as a formation primer for church adult education classes classical schools and homeschooling communities Happiness and the Christian Moral Life Paul J. Wadell,2024-10-29 As one of the most widely adopted textbooks in the field Happiness and the Christian Moral Life introduces students to Christian ethics through the lens of happiness Drawing on classical and contemporary Christian sources Paul Wadell proposes that the heart of the moral life is not rules and obligations but our deep desire for happiness and fulfillment The fourth edition of this accessible and student friendly text has been revised and updated throughout It introduces Christian ethics with sensitivity towards readers who may not be Christian themselves After setting out the principal argument of the book in the opening chapter subsequent chapters explore the importance of narrative or story for Christian ethics a Christian understanding of the person and vocation the role of the virtues in our quest for happiness the centrality of justice in the moral life the place of friendship and community in a good and flourishing life a Christian theology of freedom how sin hinders one's growth in happiness the meaning and importance of conscience and a Christian understanding of love The fourth addition also includes new sections on several topics such as the Beatitudes forgiveness and reconciliation the social thought of Pope Francis the challenges of climate change and global warming recent thinking on gender and sexual ethics by theologian Bridget Burke Ravizza a politics of charity and racism and ongoing racial conflict This edition also features fresh global examples revised introductions to key thinkers and figures expanded treatment of the theological virtues and a list of key terms at the end of every chapter Saints at Heart Bert Ghezzi,2019-10-22 Saints at Heart presents an engaging picture of the spiritual life as shown in the experience and writings of the saints The title announces the book's double theme the lives of holy men and women who have consecrated their lives to God and to the possibility of our following them and also dedicating our hearts to God Readers will discover in this book well told and appealing stories of women and men ordinary human beings like themselves who knew God and whose lives as a consequence radiated light love and joy Each story presents the core message of a saint's life and highlights an important spiritual path that readers will be encouraged to follow Spiritual Socialists Vaneesa Cook,2019-10-25 Refuting the common perception that the American left has a religion problem Vaneesa Cook highlights an important but overlooked intellectual and political tradition that she calls spiritual socialism Spiritual socialists emphasized the social side of socialism and believed the most basic expression of religious values caring for the sick tired hungry and exploited members of one's community created a firm footing for society Their unorthodox perspective on the spiritual and cultural meaning of socialist principles helped make leftist thought more palatable to Americans who associated socialism with Soviet atheism and autocracy In this way spiritual socialism continually put pressure on liberals conservatives and Marxists to address the essential connection between morality and social justice Cook tells her story through an eclectic group of activists whose lives and works span the twentieth century Sherwood Eddy A J Muste Myles Horton Dorothy Day Henry Wallace Pauli Murray Staughton Lynd and Martin Luther King Jr spoke and wrote publicly about the connection between religious values and socialism Equality cooperation and peace they argued would not develop overnight and a more humane society would never emerge through top down legislation Instead they believed that the process of their vision of the world had to happen in homes villages and cities from the bottom up By insisting that people start treating each other better in everyday life spiritual socialists transformed radical activism from projects of political policy making to grass roots organizing For Cook contemporary public figures such as Senator Bernie Sanders Pope Francis Reverend William Barber and Cornel West are part of a long standing tradition that exemplifies how non Communist socialism has gained traction in American politics

Christian Perspectives on Transforming Interreligious Encounter Peter C. Phan, Anh Q. Tran, 2024-05-15 Christian Perspectives on Transforming Interreligious Encounter underscores the urgency of interreligious dialogue for contemporary society aiming to foster interfaith understanding justice and peace The initial section focuses on novel approaches to engaging with the religious Other through non Christian sacred texts Contributors explore the Jewish Christian relationship offer Christian interpretations of Hindu Buddhist and Confucian scriptures and discuss the Qur'an's potential to refine Christian theology The dangers of comparative theology are warned against and alternative perspectives such as Asian liberation theology are proposed for situating religion critically as well as share the insights on Christian engagement with Zen practice The second part explores the transformation of key Christian doctrines through interreligious encounters Contributors delve into topics such as the conditions for faith and divine revelation formulating a Christology in dialogue with Asian traditions and understanding the Spirit as a source of questioning They investigate the communitarian dimension of religious faith discuss the Catholic Church's stance on interreligious dialogue examine the role of biblical hermeneutics in decolonizing theology and reflect on the existential threat of ecological destruction The third part pays tribute to Leo Lefebure emphasizing his impact on Catholic theology and comparative theology and concludes with Lefebure's epilogue providing him with the last word

Streams of Living Water Richard J. Foster, 2001-11-27 The author of the bestselling celebration of discipline explores the great traditions of Christian spirituality and their role in spiritual renewal today In this landmark work Foster examines the streams of living water the six dimensions of faith and practice that define Christian tradition He lifts up the enduring character of each tradition and shows how a variety of practices from individual study and retreat to disciplines of service and community are all essential elements of growth and maturity Foster examines the unique contributions of each of these traditions and offers as examples the inspiring stories of faithful people whose lives defined

each of these streams
