recognized as America's most brilliant jazz writer the winner of many major awards including the prestigious National Book Critics Circle Award and author of a highly popular biography of Bing Crosby Gary Giddins has also produced a wide range of stimulating and original cultural criticism in other fields With Natural Selection he brings together the best of these previously uncollected essays including a few written expressly for this volume The range of topics is spellbinding Writing with insight humor and a famously deft touch he offers sharp edged perspectives on such diverse subjects as Federico Fellini and Jean Renoir Norman Mailer and Ralph Ellison Marlon Brando and Groucho Marx Duke Ellington and Bob Dylan horror and noir the cartoon version of Animal Farm and the comic book series Classics Illustrated Giddins brings to criticism an uncommon ability long demonstrated in his music writing to address in very few words an entire career so that we get an in depth portrait of the artist beyond the film book or recording under review For instance Giddins offers a stunning reappraisal of Doris Day who he terms the coolest and sexiest female singer of slow ballads in film history He argues eloquently for a reconsideration of the forgotten German language novelist Soma Morgenstern In a section on comedy he offers fresh perspectives on the three great silent film stars Chaplin Keaton and Lloyd while resurrecting the legendary Jack Benny and reevaluating the controversial Jerry Lewis There's also a memorable look at Bing Crosby's film career he calls Crosby's blockbuster Going My Way a neglected masterpiece and a close examination of Marcel Carne's beloved Children of Paradise Of course Giddins also supplies excellent commentary on jazz major and underrated figures and especially the uses of jazz in film A wonderful gathering of little known treasures Natural Selection will broaden the perception of Gary Giddins as one of our most important cultural critics

Economies of Cinema Ramon Lobato, 2019-07-25 How do people access movies today What are the most popular and powerful channels for media distribution on a global scale How are film industries changing in the face of media convergence and digitisation To answer questions such as these argues Ramon Lobato we must shift our gaze away from the legal film business and toward cinema's shadow economies All around the world films are bought from roadside stalls local markets and grocery stores they are illegally downloaded and streamed they are watched in makeshift video clubs on street corners and in restaurants shops and bars International film culture in its actually existing forms is a messy affair and it relies to a great extent on black and grey media markets Examining the industrial dynamics of these subterranean film networks across a number of different sites from Los Angeles to Lagos Melbourne to Mexico City this book shows how they constitute a central rather than marginal part of audiovisual culture and commerce Combining film industry analysis with cultural theory Shadow Economies of Cinema opens up a new area of inquiry for cinema studies putting industry research into dialogue with wider debates about economic informality and commodity circulation Written in an accessible style this book offers an original bottom up perspective on the global cinema industry for researchers and students in film studies cultural studies and media and communications New York Magazine, 1986-04-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while
