Beck, 1999 This up to date survey of the finest moments in Western painting from Masaccio through Michelangelo and Titian covers some fifty artists and their work and includes 450 color illustrations Beck divides the period into three generations covering over one hundred years The art is then distinguished between a more lyric or a more monumental vision thereby giving a framework for the study and appreciation of the complex but rewarding material which has formed the basis of painting ever since Attention is given to the lives of the artists in addition to their works set in the historical context The book is accompanied by a bibliography and a glossary as well as an index for easy reference From publisher s description The

Endless Periphery Stephen J. Campbell, 2019-11-26 While the masterpieces of the Italian Renaissance are usually associated with Italy's historical seats of power some of the era's most characteristic works are to be found in places other than Florence Rome and Venice They are the product of the diversity of regions and cultures that makes up the country In Endless Periphery Stephen J Campbell examines a range of iconic works in order to unlock a rich series of local references in Renaissance art that include regional rulers patron saints and miracles demonstrating for example that the works of Titian spoke to beholders differently in Naples Brescia or Milan than in his native Venice More than a series of regional microhistories Endless Periphery tracks the geographic mobility of Italian Renaissance art and artists revealing a series of exchanges between artists and their patrons as well as the power dynamics that fueled these exchanges A counter history of one of the greatest epochs of art production this richly illustrated book will bring new insight to our understanding of classic works of Italian art

Venetian Painting in the 15th Century Otto Pächt, 2003 Otto Pacht one of the most significant art historians of the Vienna School and well known for his analyses of Early Netherlandish art turns his attention in this publication to the humanist circle of Early Renaissance painters in Venice dominated by Jacopo Bellini his sons Gentile and Giovanni and also his son in law Andrea Mantegna It was a period of newly awakened interest in the Antique of studies made directly from nature and of trial and error in the technique of perspective And in addition a new awareness of the role of light and colour in the devotional and often monumental images of the Madonna of altarpieces and of allegories contributed to the founding of what we now recognise as the hall mark of Venetian painting that culminated with Titian Of the Bellini family it has been Giovanni who was generally regarded as the major figure of the dynasty Pacht however devotes particular attention to Jacopo's work interpreting it as the basis for his sons later development He analyses Jacopo's London and Paris Sketchbook drawings demonstrating where Late Gothic elements can be seen to be overtaken by the need to give perspective depth to the image and how subsequent painting took account of these changes This is also the essence of Pacht's examination of Mantegna's work where the construction of space and depth is the key to our understanding of Mantegna's creative process Turning to the next generation of the Bellini family Pacht's guides our eyes to appreciate the refinement and perception of Gentile's portraits and finally takes us step by step through the works of Giovanni where fantasy combines with the play of colour and light in creating compositions devotional images and landscape settings of perfect harmony and beauty
