Paris Primitive Sally Price,2007-10-15 In 1990 Jacques Chirac the future president of France and a passionate fan of non European art met Jacques Kerchache a maverick art collector with the lifelong ambition of displaying African sculpture in the holy temple of French culture the Louvre Together they began laying plans and ten years later African fetishes were on view under the same roof as the Mona Lisa Then in 2006 amidst a maelstrom of controversy and hype Chirac presided over the opening of a new museum dedicated to primitive art in the shadow of the Eiffel Tower the Mus e du Quai Branly Paris Primitive recounts the massive reconfiguration of Paris s museum world that resulted from Chirac s dream set against a backdrop of personal and national politics intellectual life and the role of culture in French society Along with exposing the machinations that led to the MQB s creation Sally Price addresses the thorny questions it raises about the legacy of colonialism the balance between aesthetic judgments and ethnographic context and the role of institutions of art and culture in an increasingly diverse France Anyone with a stake in the myriad political cultural and anthropological issues raised by the MQB will find Price s account fascinating

Western European Museums and Visual Persuasion J. Donald Ragsdale,2020-07-13 Western European Museums and Visual Persuasion is an assessment of the visual persuasiveness of art museums It demonstrates that museums are as capable of influence as speeches or advertisements are and that an awareness of this influence provides an insight into museums cultural roles The book considers a diverse array of institutions ranging from such national cultural icons as the Louvre the British Museum and the Prado to museums of partisan advocacy such as the Centre Georges Pompidou the Tate Modern and the Museo Nacional Centro Arte de Reina Sofia The museums architectural significance the importance of their collections and the persuasiveness of their exhibition designs are the bases for assessment Western European Museums and Visual Persuasion is an important extension of theories of persuasion and visual communication to art art history and museology It utilizes a theory of visual signs based on the semiotics of C S Peirce to demonstrate that museum buildings the art within them and the spaces used for display all may be thought as ways of influencing society
