Andrea Mantegna: Paintings in Close Up Roger Godfrey,2015-01-06 Andrea Mantegna 1431-1506 one of the foremost north Italian painters of the 15th century A master of perspective and foreshortening he made important contributions to the compositional techniques of Renaissance painting Like other artists of the time Mantegna experimented with perspective e.g. by lowering the horizon in order to create a sense of greater monumentality His flinty metallic landscapes and somewhat stony figures give evidence of a fundamentally sculptural approach to painting He also led a workshop that was the leading producer of prints in Venice before 1500

Arnold Böcklin: Paintings in Close Up Carla Tagloff,2015-01-06 Arnold Böcklin was a Swiss symbolist painter influenced by Romanticism His painting is symbolist with mythological subjects often related with the Pre-Raphaelites He depicts fantastical figures alongside classical buildings frequently revealing an obsession with death creating a strange fantasy world Art critics have constantly found it not easy to categorize this original and eccentric artist Böcklin hated giving titles to his pictures and declared that he painted in order to make people dream Just as it is poetry's task to express feelings painting must provoke them too A picture must give the spectator as much food for thought as a poem and must make the same kind of impression as a piece of music

Close-up on Sunset Boulevard Sam Staggs,2003-02-04

Billy Wilder's Sunset Boulevard a classic film noir and also a damning dissection of the Hollywood dream factory evokes the glamour and ruin of the stars who subsist on that dream. It's also one long in-joke about the movie industry and those who made it great and who were in turn destroyed by it. One of the most critically admired films of the twentieth century, Sunset Boulevard is also famous as silent star Gloria Swanson's comeback picture. Sam Staggs's Close Up On Sunset Boulevard tells the story of this extravagant work from the writing, casting and filming to the disastrous previews that made Paramount consider shelving it. It's about the writing team of Billy Wilder and Charles Brackett sardonically called the happiest couple in Hollywood and their raucous professional relationship. It's about the art direction and the sets, the costumes, the props, the lights and the cameras and the personalities who used those tools to create a cinematic work of art. Staggs goes behind the scenes to reveal William Holden endlessly attacked by his bitter wife and already drinking too much, Nancy Olson the cheerful ingenue who had never heard of the great Gloria Swanson, the dark genius Erich von Stroheim the once famous but long forgotten Waxworks and of course Swanson herself who just like Norma Desmond had once been the greatest star of them all. But the story of Sunset Boulevard doesn't end with the movie's success and acclaim at its release in 1950. There's much more and Staggs layers this stylish book with fascinating detail following the actors and Wilder into their post-Sunset careers and revealing Gloria Swanson's never-ending struggle to free herself from the clutches of Norma Desmond. Close Up On Sunset Boulevard also chronicles the making of Andrew Lloyd Webber's musical production of Sunset Boulevard and the explosive diva controversies that dogged it. The book ends with a shocking example of Hollywood life imitating Hollywood art. By the last page of this rich narrative, readers will conclude: We are those wonderful people out there in the dark. A Masterpiece Close-up, 1981 Close Up, 1927 Ready for My Close-up! Denny Martin Flinn, 2007-11

Limelight If I want to send a message I'll call Western Union. This famous line has been attributed to various movie moguls yet while these moguls ruled the Hollywood studio system, movies were in the midst of a golden age of dialogue. Films included more messages, ideas, themes and pontifications than they ever have since. Although producers trembled at commands from the front office, writers, the low men and women on the totem pole, went quietly to their typewriters and, as the subversive revolutionaries that most writers are, turned out prose that did send messages. How could they resist? They had the biggest and best platform in the world: Hollywood movies. The 200 speeches collected in Ready for My Close Up are from some of the best and a few of the worst films ever made. From Groucho Marx's "I shot an elephant in my pajamas" to Julia Roberts's "What it takes to be a movie star here is the wit and wisdom of the great Hollywood screenwriters." The Great King's Word under AhuraMazdā's Protection Salman Aliyari Babolghani, 2025-04-03 This volume presents part of the author's research on the Achaemenid Royal Inscriptions recovered in the ruins of the Achaemenid palaces in Susa, conducted within the framework of the DARIOSH Louvre Project. It offers a new study of several fragmentary inscriptions in Old Persian, Achaemenid, Elamite and Achaemenid Babylonian, currently designated as DSe, DSt, DSb, DSl, DSa, DSk, DSi, DSp, D2Sb, DSj, A2Se, DSs, Inc, Sb and others The book provides a new edition of each inscription based on both published and unpublished fragments Additionally it introduces some new lexicons and cuneiform signs in the Old Persian language and script To float, to drown, to close up, to open E. Alex Pierce, 2022-08-31 In this collection E Alex Pierce enters the territory of memory embedded in landscape where language tied to the land evokes the cadence of tidal rivers and creates a fluid world She traces the fragmented childhood beginnings that lead to the formation of a young artist who moves from music through theatre to poetry The passionate relationships and complex juxtapositions of art and performance that form an artist's life find voice here in the symphonic structure of the long poem the provocative individual prose poems and the final stretched sonnet sequence that interrogates a lost love Still Shimmering in the morning wind And gone These fiercely poised works are layered and rich with sensuous attention to line and breath a major work from an accomplished poet And in that space of summer afternoon the image born of sound and light inhabits all her blood and bone the mind ignites She sees the fire space for her is stage now theatre is the flame She sees it burning all the way back to the Sable River the lamp the voices the two old people in the dark without wall or roof or post or beam and even as her father buries refuse in the cellar hole turns all this under she seizes it picks up her torch and runs from the title poem A Masterpiece Close-up Raphael, Fabrizio Mancinelli, 1979 The Structural Basis of Architecture Bjørn N.
