G. Heath,2005-09 A lovely bookstore owner asked me why she should read this book I explained that in writing this book I undertook a purposeful investigation leading where angels and all good Baptists fear to tread It was during this attempt at explanation the picture formed in my mind of addressing an auditorium full of women My opening remark to them is Women hunger and thirst for romance What is it that men want The entire audience responds with a resounding chorus in unison with one word SEX I then ask No really ladies what do men really want Again with a single voice the chorus returns loudly

SEX Seeing that I am getting nowhere fast I decide to try a new tack I ask Please ladies as a Romantic a Poet what do I as a man want Back it comes SEX There is a definite mind set at work here Okay honestly as a Romantic a Poet what do I want from a woman SEX Satisfied But my admission of common guilt is only true to a point Believe it or not ladies some men like myself want romance as much as you do It is in searching for this elusive thing that I have discovered so much that betrays you ladies in the very areas you are supposed to excel in the romance department I treat the causes and results of such betrayal in this book

Elizabeth Martin,Merle Martin,2014-01-04 The world seen from two set of eyes is enthralling especially when those eyes belong to two people who share the same genes but different lives For example Mel Martin s view of Alaska in the 1960s and 1970s is certainly different from Elizabeth Martin s Alaska of this century Besides a father and daughter can look at the same thing and see two different universes The book stretches from the past to the future from Alaska to Russia and from everyday to unique experiences It includes poetry short stories opinion pieces and even limericks The goal is to amuse not educate Yet you likely will mine some nuggets from the Martins combined 85 years of writing experience Many of the pieces use humor laced with sarcasm Father and daughter occasionally berate each other but it is all in fun and includes a lot of love Readers of all ages will find something in this unique book that appeals to them

The Pampered Wife , The Honorable Peter Stirling and what People Thought of Him Paul Leicester Ford,1968 A Thousand Days in Tuscany Marlena de

Blasi,2005-09-27 They had met and married on perilously short acquaintance she an American chef and food writer he a Venetian banker Now they were taking another audacious leap unstitching their ties with exquisite Venice to live in a roughly renovated stable in Tuscany Once again it was love at first sight Love for the timeless countryside and the ancient village of San Casciano dei Bagni for the local vintage and the magnificent cooking for the Tuscan sky and the friendly church bells Love especially for old Barlozzo the village mago who escorts the newcomers to Tuscany s seasonal festivals gives them roasted country bread drizzled with just pressed olive oil invites them to gather chestnuts harvest grapes hunt truffles and teaches them to caress the simple pleasures of each precious day It s Barlozzo who guides them across the minefields of village history and into the warm and fiercely beating heart of love itself A Thousand Days in Tuscany is set in one of the most beautiful places on earth and tucked into its fragrant corners are luscious recipes including one for the only true bruschetta directly from the author s private collection
