

Love Calls Us to the Things of This World

BY RICHARD WILBUR

The eyes open to a cry of pulleys,
And spirited from sleep, the astounded soul
Hangs for a moment bodiless and simple
As false dawn.

Outside the open window
The morning air is all awash with angels.

Some are in bed-sheets, some are in blouses,
Some are in smocks: but truly there they are.
Now they are rising together in calm swells
Of halcyon feeling, filling whatever they wear
With the deep joy of their impersonal breathing;

Now they are flying in place, conveying
The terrible speed of their omnipresence, moving
And staying like white water; and now of a sudden
They swoon down into so rapt a quiet
That nobody seems to be there.

The soul shrinks

From all that it is about to remember,
From the punctual rape of every blessed day,
And cries,

“Oh, let there be nothing on earth but laundry,
Nothing but rosy hands in the rising steam
And clear dances done in the sight of heaven.”

Yet, as the sun acknowledges
With a warm look the world's hunks and colors,
The soul descends once more in bitter love
To accept the waking body, saying now
In a changed voice as the man yawns and rises,

“Bring them down from their ruddy gallows;
Let there be clean linen for the backs of thieves;
Let lovers go fresh and sweet to be undone,
And the heaviest nuns walk in a pure floating
Of dark habits,

keeping their difficult balance.”

New World Metaphysics Giles Gunn, 1981-06-04 From the days of discovery when America was for Europeans more dream than reality to our own days of disillusionment and faltering hope, poets, philosophers, historians, novelists, and theologians have drawn on religious themes and images to express the meaning of their encounter with America. Here in more than one hundred selections is the record of their quest for a New World metaphysics, a spiritual vision or ultimate idea of order expressive of the American experience.

Wilbur's Poetry Bruce Michelson, 1991 Discusses the poems and translations of a leading contemporary poet.

The Culture of Interpretation Roger Lundin, 1993 This book offers a broad ranging account of contemporary American culture, the complex network of symbols, practices, and beliefs at the heart of our society. Lundin explores the historical background of some of our postmodern culture's central beliefs and considers their crucial ethical and theological implications.

Studies in Interpretation Esther M. Doyle, Virginia Floyd, 1973

Conversations with Richard Wilbur Richard Wilbur, 1990 With wit, charm, and grace, the interviews in this collection demonstrate what readers of Wilbur's poems long have suspected: that this former U.S. Poet Laureate is no less persuasive and forceful in extemporaneous speech than he is in verse and prose. Wilbur proves as enlightening and thought-provoking with student reporters from Amherst College, his alma mater, as with journalists for The Paris Review, displaying the same dazzling talents that garnered him the Pulitzer Prize in 1957 and again thirty years later. Opinionated yet ever charitable, he presents the case for rhyme and meter in a dozen different ways in just as many interviews. He expresses a degree of admiration for poetic opposites such as Allen Ginsberg and addresses the objections of his critics. Wilbur's comments and keen insights on his coevals and his craft read as articulately as fine prose. His observations never fail to stimulate or to challenge.

To Make a Poem Alberta Turner, 1992-04 A poem comes from the same human need as a prayer, a curse, a lullaby, and a keen. How can emotion use language to satisfy its most urgent need and how can it share and prolong that satisfaction by putting it into poems that will satisfy the same need in others? The answer can be learned and the skill taught. Unlike many other textbooks, this one has no teaching manual, and Alberta Turner does not expect those who use it to agree with her interpretations. Each principle is illustrated with detailed analysis of several poems, but it is up to the teachers and students to decide whether it has succeeded or failed. Poetic tastes can't be legislated; they have to creep by underground runners. Although a poem never illustrates only one poetic principle at a time, this book has focused on each separately. Since the book is intended to be used by beginning poets, the principles are sequenced from simpler to more complex. As courses in writing poetry range from two week enrichment programs to full semester college workshops the book is arranged so that the course can be shortened or lengthened This book will work best for flexible imaginative teachers of flexible imaginative students A Collegiate Press book "Fallen from the Symboled World" Wyatt Prunty,1990-02-22 This study evaluates figure and form in contemporary poetry especially the powers of simile and simile like structures Examining the works of Nemerov Wilbur Bowers Hecht Justice Cunningham Bishop Van Duyn Hollander Pack Kennedy Ammons Creeley and Wright Prunty argues that doubts about language the tradition and theistic assumptions embedded in the tradition have made simile and various simile like arrangements into major modes of thought From Lowell s early interest in the similitudo and the phantasm of Gilson to Husserl s phantasies and Heidegger s interest in similitudo to the use made by contemporary poets of simile he shows that metaphor together with slippage mimicry synaphea conjunctions anacoluthon chiasmus and other simile like patternings have proven to be more trustworthy than symbol and allegory Throughout the study Prunty demonstrates that as uncertainty about language has changed from a predicament of mind to a new way of thinking simile and simile like occurrences have provided poetry with variational thought and constitutive power The Whole Journey C. L. Barber, Richard P. Dupuy, 2024-12-19 Autobiographers typically mine memory to write of a struggle for place For some that place is wealth fame or power For others it s overcoming the wounds of addiction or an abusive past to find a place of stability As compelling as those stories can be this autobiography is different Dupuy comes from a large intact Catholic family in which he was well cared for While he explores memory and writes of a struggle for place he finds place and person not necessarily within but between established boundaries He restlessly explores spaces between and among narratives of family nation career religion and culture And he finds glimpses of an elusive and wounded subject himself A strong sense of longing a sense of not quite being at home a type of woundedness pervades his story Such places reveal themselves to him not as deficits not something to be corrected and set straight instead he sees them as a sort of home despite their shaky between nature In these spaces new contours of self others and world have opened to him The Understory Lore Ferguson Wilbert, 2024-05-21 Walk in the woods with me That s the invitation award winning author Lore Ferguson Wilbert extends to readers in The Understory On this journey Wilbert shares her story of alienation and disorientation after years of religious and political unrest in the evangelical church In doing so she looks to an unlikely place the forest to learn how to live and even thrive when everything seems to be falling apart What can we learn from eroding soil the decomposition process the time it takes to grow lichen the beauty of fiddlehead ferns the regeneration of self sowing seeds and walking through the mud Here among the understory of the forest Wilbert discovers rich metaphors for living a rooted and flourishing life within the complex ecosystems of our world Her tenderness and honesty will help readers grieve remember hope and press on with resilience Love in the Time of Cinema K. McKim,2011-11-08 Kristi McKim offers close analyses of films in which attachment and detachment intimacy and distance ephemera and endurance become more visible and meaningful Films discussed include Wim Wenders Wings of Desire Agn s Varda s Jacquot de Nantes Doris D rrie s Cherry Blossoms and Olivier Assayas Summer Hours Seeking a Center Otto Bird,2011-04-19 This is a stimulating intellectual and spiritual autobiography of Otto Bird a pioneer in the Great Books Movement in this country Beyond the Story Christina Bieber Lake,2019-10-31 Beyond the Story American Literary Fiction and the Limits of Materialism argues that theology is crucial to understanding the power of contemporary American stories By drawing on the theories of M M Bakhtin Christian personalism and contemporary phenomenology Lake argues that literary fiction activates an irreducibly personal intersubjectivity between author reader and characters Stories depend on a dignity granting valuation of the particular lives of ordinary people which is best described as an act of love that mirrors the love of the divine Through original readings of the fiction of Philip Roth Cormac McCarthy Lydia Davis Toni Morrison and others Lake enters into a dialogue with postsecular theory and cognitive literary studies to reveal the limits of sociobiology s approach to culture The result is a book that will remind readers how storytelling continually reaffirms the transcendent value of human beings in an inherently personal cosmos This book will be of interest to students and scholars of theology and literary studies as well as a broad audience of readers seeking to engage on a deeper level with contemporary literature Pragmatist Politics John McGowan,2012 In our current age of cynicism John McGowan suggests that the time is right to take a fresh look at pragmatism the philosophy of American democracy As McGowan shows pragmatism can be an inspiring alternative to the despair that seems to dominate contemporary American politics Pragmatist Politics is passionate and convincing both heartfelt and clear eyed It offers an expansive vision of what the United States could be and should be From John Dewey and William James McGowan derives a history of democracy as a way of life characterized by a distinctive ethos and based on an understanding of politics as potentially effective collective agency That democratic ideal is wedded to a liberalism that focuses on extending the benefits of democracy and of material prosperity to all Beyond the intellectual case for liberal democracy McGowan turns to how James especially was attuned to the ways that emotional appeals often trump persuasion through arguments and he examines the work of Kenneth Burke among others to investigate the link between liberal democracy and a comic view of human life Comedy McGowan notes allows consideration of themes of love forgiveness and generosity that figure far too infrequently in philosophical accounts of politics In McGowan s work the combination of pragmatism and comedy takes us on a wide ranging exploration of what American politics and by extension American life could actually be like if it truly reflected American values The Modern Element Adam Kirsch,2013-10-07 A collection of
