Are They?* LaVanna Gordon, 2020-10-26 This book was written for children to have a new perspective for Halloween this year It is filled with fun ideas and based around a Halloween spent with your family Sharks Are Scary Aren't They? Christine Edwards, 2023-01-28 Sharks Are Scary Aren't They depicts the emotional journey of Charlie Parker a fearful twelve year old boy and Jane Jones a retired dentist and scuba diver who meet by chance on a beach Despite the years that separate them they discover they are more alike than they could have imagined Reading the World's Stories Annette Y. Goldsmith, Theo Heras, Susan Corapi, 2016-08-11 Reading the World's Stories is volume 5 in the Bridges to Understanding series of annotated international youth literature bibliographies sponsored by the United States Board on Books for Young People USBBY is the United States chapter of the International Board on Books for Young People IBBY a Switzerland based nonprofit whose mission is bring books and children together

The series promotes sharing international children's books as a way to facilitate intercultural understanding and meet new literary voices. This volume follows Children's Books from Other Countries 1998, The World through Children's Books 2002, Crossing Boundaries with Children's Books 2006, and Bridges to Understanding: Envisioning the World through Children's Books 2011, and acts as a companion book to the earlier titles. Centered around the theme of the importance of stories, the guide is a resource for discovering more recent global books that fit many reading tastes and educational needs for readers aged 0-18 years. Essays by storyteller Anne Pellowski, author Beverley Naidoo, and academic Marianne Martens offer a variety of perspectives on international youth literature. This latest installment in the series covers books published from 2010-2014 and includes English language imports as well as translations of children's and young adult literature first published outside of the United States. These books are supplemented by a smaller number of culturally appropriate books from the US to help fill in gaps from underrepresented countries. The organization of the guide is geographic by region and country. All of the more than 800 entries are recommended, and many of the books have won awards or achieved other recognition in their home countries. Forty children's book experts wrote the annotations. The entries are indexed by author, translator, illustrator, title, and subject. Back matter also includes international book awards, important organizations, and research collections, and a selected directory of publishers known for publishing books from other countries.

How To Write A Horror Movie Neal Bell, 2020-03-20. How to Write a Horror Movie is a close look at an always popular but often disrespected genre. It focuses on the screenplay and acts as a guide to bringing scary ideas to cinematic life using examples from great and some not so great horror movies. Author Neal Bell examines how the basic tools of the scriptwriter's trade, including structure, dialogue, humor, mood, characters, and pace, can work together to embody personal fears that will resonate strongly on screen. Screenplay examples include classic works such as 1943's I Walked With A Zombie and recent terrifying films that have given the genre renewed attention, like writer-director Jordan Peele's critically acclaimed and financially successful Get Out. Since fear is universal, the book considers films from around the world, including the found footage REC from Spain (2007), the Swedish vampire movie Let The Right One In (2008), and the Persian language film Under The Shadow (2016). The book provides insights into the economics of horror movie making and the possible future of this versatile genre. It is the ideal text for screenwriting students exploring genre and horror, and aspiring scriptwriters who have an interest in horror screenplays.

A Heart in the Dark Mad Dog, 2016-07-15. Dedicated to my parents who have always been so supportive and to my friends Becca, Autumn, A Game, Danielle, Dave, and Lucy, who took time to read my works. And Bob, without your help, I wouldn't have been able to start this book. It's a book. What more can I say? I hope you enjoy it.
