Christian raised them in church and daily referred to the Bible to explain why they should respond to life's problems. Being a Christian, she knew in her heart what was Godly and what was not. Her father, a fun-loving whiskey-drinking jig dancing hard working man, was a believer but not a practitioner. Her well-endowed bosom caused her young life to be filled with ridicule from her school age peers. She longed for someone to see her as she was, a caring God-loving young woman with the desire and the ability to make a good wife and mother. Yet every time she sees blood, she loses consciousness and gets a glimpse into the private inner worlds of the wound's owner, tracing through the events that caused the injury with frightening precision. She can't tell anyone this, of course. It's bad enough that she has severe PTSD and hemophobia, but unexplained magical powers as well. She'd rather spiral into jobless poverty than admit the truth and risk getting locked up in some kind of mental institution. That is until she meets the handsome and caring Dr. B. I. C. Khi. M. Despite Heidi's intentions of telling no one her secret, she finds herself opening up to the psychiatrist better than her own therapist in more ways than one. And yet while Dr. Khi. M. may not have any powers, he's hiding secrets of his own. So when a mysterious figure starts to stalk Heidi in pursuit of her hidden gift, it isn't just her safety that's threatened, but Khi. M.'s too. Together, Heidi and Khi. M. learn that not all wounds are visible and healing them may cost one of their lives.
