Community Practice in the Network Society Peter Day,Doug Schuler,2004-08-02 Around the world citizens in local communities are utilising ICTs to underpin the creation of a participatory and democratic vision of the network society Embedded in the richness and diversity of community practice a vision of a civil network society is emerging A society where ICTs are harnessed as tools to improve the quality of life and reflect the diversity of social networks where people are viewed as citizens not just as consumers and where heterogeneity is perceived as a strength rather than a weakness Community Practice in the Network Society looks at the broad context in which this is happening presents case studies of local projects from around the world and discusses community ICT research methodologies Not only does it highlight the symbiotic relationship between community ICT practice and research but it also provides evidence supporting the case for the development of more inclusive and participatory pathways to the network society

Private Voluntary Health Insurance in Development Alexander S. Preker,Richard M. Scheffler,Mark C. Bassett,2007 Private voluntary health insurance already plays an important role in the health sector of many low and middle income countries The book reviews the context under which private insurance could contribute to an improvement in the financial sustainability of the health sector financial protection against the costs of illness household income smoothing access to care and market productivity This volume is the third in a series of in depth reviews of the role of health care financing in providing access for low income populations to needed healthcare protecting them from the impoverishing effects of illness and addressing the important issues of social exclusion in government financed programs

Provinces Christopher Dunn,2006-08-01 Provinces is both a study of Canadian provincial government and a review of comparative politics As such it represents a long overdue return to the comparative tradition with its emphasis on subject specific studies across the country The chapters in this revised edition of Provinces each of which has been written for the book by a leading scholar are arranged according to four major sections political life institutions public administration and public policy making the book highly suitable for those interested in areas beyond provincial politics At the same time the adopted comparative approach reveals a wealth of insight into Canadian politics at the beginning of the new millennium This new edition covers some of the vital concerns of our time a disquiet about the quality of democracy concern about women s place in provincial societies interest in the nature and potential of governance in the north unease on the question of the fiscal imbalance between all orders of government a sensitivity to the needs of cities and communities assessment of the retrenchment of the state and consideration of the policy futures influenced by the changing demography of the provinces Special Combined Price Provinces second edition may be ordered together with The Provincial State in Canada Politics in the Provinces and Territories at a special discounted price In order to secure the package price the following ISBN must be used when ordering 978 1 55402 587 9

Web Search: Public Searching of the Web Amanda Spink,Bernard J. Jansen,2006-02-21 This book brings together results from the Web search studies we conducted from 1997 through 2004 The aim of our studies has been twofold to examine how the public at large searches the Web and to highlight trends in public Web searching The eight year period from 1997 to 2004 saw the beginnings and maturity of public Web searching Commercial Web search engines have come and gone or endured through the fall of the dot com companies We saw the rise and in some cases the demise of several high profile publicly available Web search engines The study of the Web search is an exciting and important area of interdisciplinary research Our book provides a valuable insight into the growth and development of human interaction with Web search engines In this book our focus is on the human aspect of the interaction between user and Web search engine We do not investigate the Web search engines themselves or their constantly changing interfaces algorithms and features We focus on exploring the cognitive and user aspects of public Web searching in the aggregate We use a variety of quantitative and qualitative methods within the overall methodology known as transaction log analysis
