On The Passage Of A Few People Through A Rather Brief Moment In Time:

On the Passage of a Few People Through a Rather Brief Moment in Time Elisabeth Sussman, Institute of Contemporary Art (Boston, Mass.), Musée national d'art moderne (France), Institute of Contemporary Arts (London, England), 1989 These photographs essays drawings and original texts document the rich agit art legacy of the Situationist International a group of European artists and writers who emerged from such avant garde movements as COBRA Lettrisme and the Imaginary Bauhaus and from the breakup of surrealism to launch a strategy of art as cultural critique

On the passage of a few people through a rather brief moment in time: the situationist international 1957-1972 Elisabeth Sussman, 1989

Guy Debord, the Situationist International, and the Revolutionary Spirit James Trier, 2019-07-15 Winner of the 2020 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Award

Guy Debord the Situationist International and the Revolutionary Spirit presents a history of the two avant garde groups that French filmmaker and subversive strategist Guy Debord founded and led the Lettrist International 1952 1957 and the Situationist International 1957 1972 Debord is popularly known for his classic book The Society of the Spectacle 1967 but his masterwork is the Situationist International SI which he fashioned into an international revolutionary avant garde group that orchestrated student protests at the University of Strasbourg in 1966 contributed to student unrest at the University of Nanterre in 1967 1968 and played an important role in the occupations movement that brought French society to a standstill in May of 1968 The book begins with a brief history of the Lettrist International that explores the group s conceptualization and practice of the critical anti art practice of d tournament as well as the subversive spatial practices of the d rive psychogeography and unitary urbanism These practices which became central to the Situationist International anticipated many contemporary cultural practices including culture jamming critical media literacy and critical public pedagogy This book follows up the edited book D tournament as Pedagogical Praxis Sense Publishers 2014 and together they offer readers particularly those in the field of Education an introduction to the history concepts and critical practices of a group whose revolutionary spirit permeates contemporary culture as can be seen in the political actions of Pussy Riot in Russia the yellow vest protesters in France the BlackLivesMatter movement and the striking teachers and student protesters on campuses throughout the U S See inside the book

Cities on the Margin, on the Margin of Cities Philippe Laplace, Eric Tabuteau, 2003

50 Years of Recuperation of the Situationist International McKenzie Wark, 2008-07-04 In this work the author suggests what is still vital in the Situationist legacy as well as how modern provocateurs have picked up the thread of those who dared to negate their contemporary world as a whole and imagine it anew

A Dictionary of the Avant-Gardes , 2013-05-13 A Dictionary of the Avant Gardes recognizes that change is a driving force in all the arts It covers major trends in music dance theater film visual art sculpture and performance art as well as architecture science and culture

Lipstick Traces Greil Marcus, 2009-11-30 This is a secret history of modern times told by way of what conventional history tries to exclude Lipstick Traces tells a story as disruptive and compelling as the century itself Social Studies--the Next Generation Avner Segall, Cleo H. Cherryholmes, Elizabeth E. Heilman, 2006

Social Studies The Next Generation broadens the imagination within social studies education by highlighting current cutting edge scholarship incorporating critical discourses Drawing on postmodern poststructural postcolonial and feminist theories often borrowed from cultural studies curriculum theory critical geography women s studies and queer studies the scholars contributing to this volume ask new questions about social studies use different methodologies to study the field and report findings with new forms of textualization This book is dialogic and even conversational ending with provocative responses from established social studies scholars and the editors and disturbs the given and the taken for granted in social studies research The Columbia Dictionary of Modern Literary and Cultural Criticism Joseph Childers, Gary Hentzi, 1995 More than 450 succinct entries from A to Z help readers make sense of the interdisciplinary knowledge of cultural criticism that includes film psychoanalytic deconstructive poststructuralist and postmodernist theory as well as philosophy media studies linguistics Novels of Everyday Life Laurie Langbauer, 2019-05-15 Laurie Langbauer argues that our worldview is shaped not just by great public events but also by the most overlooked and familiar aspects of common life the everyday This sphere of the everyday has always been a crucial component of the novel but has been ignored by many writers and critics and long associated with the writing of women Focusing on the linked series of novels characteristic of later Victorian and early modern fiction such as Margaret Oliphant s Carlingford Chronicles or the Sherlock Holmes stories she investigates how authors make use of the everyday as a foundation to support their versions of realism What happens when in the series novel or in contemporary theory the everyday becomes a site of contestation and debate Langbauer pursues this question through the novels of Margaret Oliphant Charlotte Yonge Anthony Trollope and Arthur Conan Doyle and in the writings of Dorothy Richardson Virginia Woolf and John Galsworthy as they reflect on their Victorian predecessors She also explores accounts of the everyday in the works of such theorists as Henri Lefebvre Michel de Certeau and Sigmund Freud as well as materialist critics including George Lukacs Max Horkheimer and Theodor Adorno Her work shows how these writers link the series and the everyday in ways that reveal different approaches to comprehending the obscurity that makes up daily life Sculpture and Archaeology Paul Bonaventura, Andrew Jones, 2011 In recent years the intersections between art history and archaeology have become the focus of critical analysis by both disciplines Contemporary sculpture has played a key role in this dialogue These essays by art historians archaeologists and artists take the intersection between sculpture and archaeology as the prelude for analysis examining the metaphorical and conceptual role of archaeology as subject matter for sculptors and the significance of sculpture as a three dimensional medium for exploring historical attitudes to archaeology France and the Visual Arts Since 1945 Catherine Dossin, 2019-01-01 Taking on the myth of France s creative exhaustion following World War II this collection of essays brings together an international team of scholars whose research offers English readers a rich and complex overview of the place of France and French artists in the visual arts since 1945

Addressing a wide range of artistic practices spanning over seven decades and using different methodologies their contributions cover ground charted and unknown They introduce greater depth and specificity to familiar artists and movements such as Lettrism Situationist International or Nouveau Réalisme while bringing to the fore lesser known artists and groups including GRAPUS the Sociological Art Collective and Nicolas Schaffner Collectively they stress the political dimensions and social ambitions of the art produced in France at the time deconstruct the traditional geography of the French art world and highlight the multiculturalism of the French art scene that resulted from its colonial past and the constant flux of artistic travels and migrations Ultimately the book contributes to a story of postwar art in which France can be inscribed not as a main or sub chapter but rather as a vector in the wider constellation of modern and contemporary art

The Art and Politics of Asger Jorn Karen Kurczynski, 2017-07-05 A leading figure of the postwar avant garde Danish artist Asger Jorn has long been recognized for his founding contributions to the Cobra and Situationist International movements yet art historical scholarship on Jorn has been sparse particularly in English This study corrects that imbalance offering a synthetic account of the essential phases of this prolific artists career It addresses his works in various media alongside his extensive writings and his collaborations with various artists groups from the 1940s through the mid 1960s Situating Jorn s work in an international post Second World War context Karen Kurczynski reframes our understanding of the 1950s away from the Abstract Expressionist focus on individual expression toward a more open ended conception of art as a public engagement with contemporary culture and politics Kurczynski engages with issues of interest to twenty first century artists and scholars highlighting Jorn s proposition that the sensory address of art and its complex relationship to popular media can have a direct social impact Perhaps most significantly this study foregrounds Jorn s assertion that creativity is crucial to subjectivity itself in our increasingly mediated Society of the Spectacle

The Beach Beneath the Street McKenzie Wark, 2015-04-07 Over fifty years after the Situationist International appeared its legacy continues to inspire activists artists and theorists around the world Such a legend has accrued to this movement that the story of the SI now demands to be told in a contemporary voice capable of putting it into the context of twenty first century struggles McKenzie Wark delves into the Situationists unacknowledged diversity revealing a world as rich in practice as it is in theory Tracing the group s development from the bohemian Paris of the 50s to the explosive days of May 68 Wark s take on the Situationists is biographically and historically rich presenting the group as an ensemble creation rather than the brainchild and dominion of its most famous member Guy Debord Roaming through Europe and the lives of those who made up the movement including Constant Asger Jorn Michèle Bernstein Alex Trocchi and Jacqueline De Jong Wark uncovers an international movement riven with conflicting passions Accessible to those who have only just discovered the Situationists and filled with new insights The Beach Beneath the Street rereads the group s history in the light of our contemporary experience of communications architecture and everyday life The Situationists tried to escape the world of twentieth century spectacle and failed in the attempt Wark argues that they may still help us to escape the twenty first century while we still can Raiding the Icebox Peter Wollen, 2008-08-17 Raiding the Icebox is a kaleidoscopic review of the avant garde and radical subcultures of the twentieth century and explains how the most powerful artistic statements of the era redrew the line between high and low art Beginning with an analysis of the role of Diaghilev and the Russian Ballet Wollen argues that modernism has always had a hidden suppressed side which cannot easily be absorbed into the master narrative of modernity Wollen reviews the hopes fears and expectations of artists and critics such as the Bauhaus movement as fascinated by Henry Ford's assembly line as they were by the Hollywood dream factory concluding with Guy Debord's caustic dystopian vision of an all consuming Society of the Spectacle Finally Wollen chronicles the emergence of a subversive sensibility as he explores some of the unexpected new cultural forms which non Western artists are taking as modernism enters into crisis at the beginning of a new century reversing the rules of the game and raiding the icebox of the West Re-envisioning Peacekeeping François Debrix, 1999 Kritisk gennemgang af de seneste FN interventioner i Irak Somalia og Bosnien hvor m let var at skabe international orden Den Nye Verdensorden under indtryk af fredelig intervention og humanitær bistand Don't Act, Just Dance Catherine Gunther Kodat, 2014-12-26 At some point in their career nearly all the dancers who worked with George Balanchine were told don't act dear just dance The dancers understood this as a warning against melodramatic over interpretation and an assurance that they had all the tools they needed to do justice to the steps but its implication that to dance is already to act in a manner both complete and sufficient resonates beyond stage and studio Drawing on fresh archival material Don't Act Just Dance places dance at the center of the story of the relationship between Cold War art and politics Catherine Gunther Kodat takes Balanchine's catch phrase as an invitation to explore the politics of Cold War culture in particular to examine the assumptions underlying the role of apolitical modernism in U S cultural diplomacy Through close theoretically informed readings of selected important works Marianne Moore's Combat Cultural dances by George Balanchine Merce Cunningham and Yuri Grigorovich Stanley Kubrick's Spartacus and John Adams's Nixon in China Kodat questions several commonly held beliefs about the purpose and meaning of modernist cultural productions during the Cold War Rather than read the dance through a received understanding of Cold War culture Don't Act Just Dance reads Cold War culture through the dance and in doing so establishes a new understanding of the politics of modernism in the arts of the period When Technocultures Collide Gary Genosko, 2013-10-25 When Technocultures Collide provides rich and diverse studies of collision courses between technologically inspired subcultures and the corporate and governmental entities they seek to undermine The adventures and exploits of computer hackers phone phreaks urban explorers calculator and computer collectors CrackBerry users whistle blowers Yuppies zingers roulette cheats chess geeks and a range of losers and tinkerers feature prominently in this volume Gary Genosko analyzes these practices for their remarkable diversity and their innovation and leaps of imagination He assesses the results of a number of operations including the Canadian stories of Mafiaboy Jeff Chapman of

Infiltration and BlackBerry users The author provides critical accounts of highly specialized attributes such as the prospects of deterritorialized computer mice and big toe computing the role of electrical grid hacks in urban technopolitics and whether info addiction and depression contribute to tactical resistance Beyond resistance however the goal of this work is to find examples of technocultural autonomy in the minor and marginal cultural productions of small cultures ethico poetic diversions and sustainable withdrawals with genuine therapeutic potential to surpass accumulation debt and competition The dangers and joys of these struggles for autonomy are underlined in studies of RIM s BlackBerry and Julian Assange s WikiLeaks website

Savage Grace Jay Griffiths, 2015-03-17 Jay Griffiths is a tour guide for anyone who has ever wished to commune with the side of our human psyche that remains in touch with the wild Equally at home among the sea gypsy Bajo people who live off the coast of Thailand and forage their food from the ocean floor drinking the psychedelic ayahuasca plant with Amazonian shamans or joining an Inuit whale hunt at the northern tip of Canada Griffiths takes readers on an adventure both charted and un chartable She divides her meditations on these travels into sections named after the ancient elemental properties of the universe Earth Air Fire Ice and Water because her subject matter is not merely the places traveled to but the depths of mind and the cultural narratives revealed by place It is a universal story told of far flung groups of humans with vastly different ways of life connected through the varied wilderness that sustains them By describing the ways in which human societies and the human mind have developed in response to the wilder elements of our homelands Savage Grace reveals itself as a benediction for the emotional intellectual and physical nourishment that people continue to draw from the natural world Under the sway of Griffiths charisma her poetic prose and her deeply learned and persuasive case for the wild roots of our shared human being we learn that we are all each and every one of us a force of nature

The Situationist City Simon Sadler, 1999-08-18 Simon Sadler searches for the Situationist City among the detritus of tracts manifestos and works of art that the Situationist International left behind From 1957 to 1972 the artistic and political movement known as the Situationist International SI worked aggressively to subvert the conservative ideology of the Western world The movement s broadside attack on establishment institutions and values left its mark upon the libertarian left the counterculture the revolutionary events of 1968 and more recent phenomena from punk to postmodernism But over time it tended to obscure Situationism s own founding principles In this book Simon Sadler investigates the artistic architectural and cultural theories that were once the foundations of Situationist thought particularly as they applied to the form of the modern city According to the Situationists the benign professionalism of architecture and design had led to a sterilization of the world that threatened to wipe out any sense of spontaneity or playfulness The Situationists hankered after the pioneer spirit of the modernist period when new ideas such as those of Marx Freud and Nietzsche still felt fresh and vital By the late fifties movements such as British and American Pop Art and French Nouveau Ralisme had become intensely interested in everyday life space and mass culture The SI aimed to convert this interest into a revolution at the level of the city itself Their principle for the reorganization of cities was simple and seductive let the citizens themselves decide what spaces and architecture they want to live in and how they wish to live in them This would instantly undermine the powers of state bureaucracy capital and imperialism thereby revolutionizing people s everyday lives Simon Sadler searches for the Situationist City among the detritus of tracts manifestos and works of art that the SI left behind The book is divided into three parts The first The Naked City outlines the Situationist critique of the urban environment as it then existed The second Formulary for a New Urbanism examines Situationist principles for the city and for city living The third A New Babylon describes actual designs proposed for a Situationist City
