happened to know these people so well and I told you jokingly that it was my Social nose which over and over again had led me steorage way across the sea back to the villages from which the immigrants come and onward with them into the new life in America There are then upon this immigrant trail many people of varied cultural development some of them coming from countries in which they have been part of a very high type of civilization while others come from the veritable back woods of Europe into which neither steam nor electricity has entered to disturb the old order nor has yet awakened a new life A
