On the Way to Over the Hill Grace Lee,1997      The Workbook ,1996      Dear Mom Deborah Berger,2002-01-09

Dear Reader Every woman has stories to tell about her mother The mother she has the mother she wants the mother she misses the mother she didn't know We carry our mothers with us Sometimes we carry her in our hearts in our heads or on our backs Sometimes we are connected to our mothers with the thick strong cords of intertwined love and true acceptance other times the bonds are stretched thin and taut scratching against our consciousness rubbing raw the sore spots in our souls But we are always linked to our mothers both to the dreams of the mothers we wish for and the realities of the mothers we have Even if our mother has been gone for years for decades the relationship is still very much alive Mom is still with us offering advice encouragement criticism appreciation rejection solace What we daughters do with this ongoing commentary whether we unknowingly incorporate it into our reality or consciously and carefully review it deciding what to keep and what to put away is fundamental to how fully we lead our own lives In Dear Mom Women's Letters of Love Loss and Longing you meet women who have stripped away pretenses societal constraints and basic fears to uncover and express their most private truths about their relationship with their mothers You get to peer over the shoulders of the women share in their laughter and experience their struggles You see how other women cast light on this most complicated rewarding and sometimes frustrating relationship You witness women at different stages of their lives reflecting on the legacies their mothers knowingly or unconsciously but always powerfully left them You hear how other women experience the glories and the scars the hurt and the healing that make up this most primal of connections You also get to meet the women behind the letters since each Dear Mom letter is followed by a profile of the contributor You learn about the surprises satisfactions and challenges they faced in writing down their most private truths The 25 Dear Mom contributors include women from a variety of backgrounds careers religions and lifestyles They include present and former teachers business owners homemakers real estate agents artists secretaries social workers journalists and government officials Some are accomplished professionals well known in their fields and public figures in their communities They are married single divorced widowed Many though not all are mothers themselves Many contributors are baby boomers in their 40s and 50s Others are in their 60s 70s and 80s The oldest contributor is over 90 her conversation with her mother continues      AAGE Newsletter ,1992      Living Safely Aging Well Dorothy A. Drago,2014-01-15 Older adults can stay healthy longer by avoiding injury at home As we age our sense of balance and our vision hearing and cognition become less sharp Aging related changes greatly increase our risk of injury In Living Safely Aging Well nationally recognized safety expert Dorothy A Drago spells out how to prevent injury while cooking gardening sleeping driving and just walking around the house In the first part of the book Drago describes the causes of injuries by type falls burns poisoning and asphyxia and explains how to decrease the risk of each She then explores the home environment room by room pointing out potential hazards and explaining how to avoid them for example by installing night lights eliminating glass coffee tables and using baby monitors Lively line drawings make it easy for readers to visualize risks and implement prevention techniques Living Safely Aging Well pays special attention to hazards encountered by people with Alzheimer s disease and other forms of dementia A chapter devoted to health literacy helps people and caregivers make the best use of the medical care system and a chapter on driving helps evaluate when it is no longer safe to be behind the wheel
