On The Way Vocation Awareness And Fly Fishing:

On the Way Kenneth Arnold, 2000 Episcopal deacon Kenneth Arnold brings many so called secular not to mention colorful aspects of his life to bear upon his ordained ministry among them fly fishing And yet he writes I never keep them referring to the fat brown river trout he likes to borrow from the water then throw back In this unusual memoir of ordained ministry Arnold s sometimes haunting sometimes hilarious episodes from hospital chaplaincy parish life and life in general receive a similar light treatment Scene after remarkable scene is offered up blessed lovingly and then let go a terminally ill woman is raped in her hospital bed by another patient a parish is so pet friendly that dogs are regular parishioners All life not just the uplifting and spiritual comes coursing through these pages Arnold s way of Christian ministry is deep enough and wide enough to harbor lots of rocks and boulders not to mention enigmatic fish and fishermen and still somehow retain its surface shimmer and serenity

The Living Church ,1995-07 Living Water , Klara Tammany is a professional Christian educator who goes about her calling with a joyous urgency This book demonstrates her impassioned approach to religious instruction She starts with the premise that ongoing Christian education must be central to a life of faith and then proceeds from the corollary that baptism must be central to all Christian education Eight group sessions focus repeatedly on water first as a natural element necessary to life then as a symbolic element necessary to spirituality Gradually through prayer song scripture silence poetry visual arts storytelling group discussion and personal reflection water as baptismal element gains ascendancy No longer mere occasional refreshment Living Water inundates becomes life s very medium This text makes for excellent catechumenal preparation but is intended for use by all Christians those who are years into their journeys as well as those who are beginning Designed for small groups of adult Episcopalians the program is easily adaptable to other denominations to one on one spiritual mentoring to children young adult or intergenerational groups and even to individuals for private meditation
