On Thrones of Gold James R. Brandon, 1993-07-01 Perhaps the best English language puppetry book in years Library Journal Accessible and unexpectedly involving an essential book for anyone seriously interested in wayang On Thrones of Gold; Three Javanese Shadow Plays. Edited with an Introd. by James R. Brandon James R. Brandon, Tall Tree, Nest of the Wind: The Javanese Shadow-play Dewa Ruci Performed by Ki Anom Soeroto Bernard Arps, 2016-04-18 Javanese shadow puppetry is a sophisticated dramatic form often felt to be at the heart of Javanese culture drawing on classic texts but with important contemporary resonance in fields like religion and politics How to make sense of the shadow play as a form of world making In Tall Tree Nest of the Wind Bernard Arps explores this question by considering an all night performance of Dewa Ruci a key play in the repertoire Thrilling and profound Dewa Ruci describes the mighty Bratasena's quest for the ultimate mystical insight The book presents Dewa Ruci as rendered by the distinguished master puppeteer Ki Anom Soeroto in Amsterdam in 1987 The book's unusual design presents the performance texts together with descriptions of the sounds and images that would remain obscure in conventional formats of presentation Copious annotations probe beneath the surface and provide an understanding of the performance's cultural complexity These annotations explain the meanings of puppet action music and shifts in language how the puppeteer wove together into the drama the circumstances of the performance in Amsterdam Islamic and other religious ideas and references to contemporary Indonesian political ideology Also revealed is the performance's historical multilayering and the picture it paints of the Javanese past Tall Tree Nest of the Wind not only presents an unrivalled insight into the artistic depth of wayang kulit it exemplifies a new field of study the philology of performance Between Tongues Jennifer Lindsay, 2006 Between Tongues takes the subject of performance translation in a completely new direction While the topic is often discussed in relation to the translation of dramatic texts such as Shakespeare in Malay the authors in this collection examine presentations of traditional and contemporary works in Asia in their original languages before audiences who do not share that language They also discuss translation as a phenomenon inherent to much performance in Asia particularly in multilingual settings Order and Transcendence, 2021-12-06 The Garland Encyclopedia of World Music Terry E. Miller, Sean Williams, 2017-09-25 The first complete music reference for the region this volume covers all the nations of modern Southeast Asia Burma Cambodia Laos Thailand Vietnam Singapore Malaysia Indonesia and the Philippines in thirty five articles written by twenty seven expert contributors Music in Java E.D Kunst, 2012-12-06 The Oxford Companion to Theatre and Performance Dennis Kennedy, 2010-08-26 An authoritative reference covering primarily actors playwrights directors styles and movements companies and organizations WAYANG WONG R.M. Soedarsono, 2021-11-24 Preface I have been teaching the history of performing arts and Javanese dance Yogyakarta style for twenty years and there have always been two features of this history that made me think and rethink 1 wayang wong was never performed outside the palace's walls until the first quarter of the twentieth century because it was considered a pusaka sacred heirloom and 2 wayang wong performances were always put on the Tratatag Bangsal Kencana stage and started at dawn. Numerous ex wayang wong dancers of the Yogyakarta court gave me the same answers to my questions about these facts. They said that 1 wayang wong was a pusaka because it was created by Sultan Hamengkubuwana I and 2 wayang wong performances were put on stage at the dawn of the day because it was karsa Dal m the Sultan's will. In my opinion, there must be something particularly significant behind the creation of wayang wong because the Surakarta court never performed this dance genre and I realized that to obtain satisfactory answers to these questions I would have to do extensive research on this subject. In August 1977 when I participated in the World Music Congress at Berkeley I met Professor Judith Becker. On one occasion I talked with her concerning the possibility of my pursuing a Ph.D. degree at the University of Michigan with a dissertation topic Wayang Wong. She responded wholeheartedly and without any delay made a long distance call to her husband Professor Alton L. Becker. Both of them became my teachers, advisors and co-chairmen. After my return from Berkeley I started to do research on some aspects of wayang wong. In 1980 I began my coursework in Southeast Asian Studies at the University of Michigan, emphasizing three areas of study: 1 Southeast Asian Performance Traditions, 2 Southeast Asian History and 3 Southeast Asian Literature. With the assistance of the Asian Cultural Council I continued my research at the Asia Society and the Library of Performing Arts in New York. There I scrutinized wayang wong films, especially the one of the lakon Mintaraga made by Mr. Tassilo Adam in 1926. Although the film is very choppy, it gave me priceless information about the magnificent production and also about the large audience of kawula Dal m the Sultan's subjects who witnessed the performance. With the assistance of the Asian Cultural Council, the Ford Foundation and the University of Michigan I returned to Java during the summer of 1981 to continue my research at the Yogyakarta court libraries, The Sanabudaya Museum and to interview numerous ex wayang wong dancers. From these activities the first evidence for my hypothesis emerged, i.e. that wayang wong was a state ritual and not just a mere entertainment in the Yogyakarta court. By reading numerous wayang wong texts, S rat Kandha and S rat Pocapan, all in Javanese handwriting manuscripts about the Yogyakarta's pusakas and by analysing the conception of kingship of Mataram I obtained enough data to confirm my hypothesis further. It became apparent to me that wayang wong was created by Sultan Hamengkubuwana I in the late 1970s as a revival of the Old Javanese wayang wong. Photographs play a significant role in this work since visual information about this dance drama gives us a clear image of numerous scenes. With the exception of figures nos 13, 17, 69 and 84, all the photographs and pictures are from my own collection and drawing. Photographs are nevertheless motionless shots of dance movement and therefore cannot distinguish the movements of one character from another. Hence I have felt it necessary to put the basic movements of the twenty-one wayang wong types of character in Labanotation.

Kunst, 2012-12-06 One day in the summer of 1921 a postal delivery brought me a little packet of reprints from the periodical Djawa articles about Indonesian music by Dr JAAP KUNST which until that moment had not come to my notice A cursory glance was enough to convince me that the author was a very gifted man who had made a sound and absolutely scientific study of the subject and thereby made a valuable contribution by means of careful observation and actual tone measurements to the facts known from the older studies by GRONEMAN LAND and ELLIS These measurements were particularly satisfying to me personally since they constituted an astonishing confirmation of a hypothesis concerning the genesis of tone systems through the cycle of blown fifths which I had propounded two years previously without however having published it At the same time it was proved through the perfect conformity existing between the measured and the theoretical absolute pitches vibration frequencies that Indonesian gamelan tuning too belongs to the radius of ancient Chinese culture much the same as is the case with Pan pipes and xylo phones all over the world The first contact between Dr KUNST and myself led to a regular correspondence which especially contributed to a further development of the above mentioned theory of tone systems
