of taxiing and landing he visits roadside attractions and unusual towns one where every casual expression and idiom is questioned hence a diner offering Real Diner Cooking rather than real home cooking another where he is chased with pitchforks and shotguns by citizens still traumatized by Orson Welles's War of the Worlds a remote crossroads where he finds himself under attack by a low flying plane and finally a town near Roswell New Mexico where Peter becomes a phenomenon to rival Roswell's reputation for alien invasion Along the way Peter encounters other on the roaders and finds himself pursued by a mysterious dark haired girl who continues to appear in different guises and seems strangely familiar though he can't quite place her face And in a parallel contemporary journey undertaken with his wife Albertine the adult Peter revisits his long ago journey navigating as Albertine drives a vintage automobile through a much changed America and misremembering every step of the way On the Wing is a playful but profound novel about an Icarus who does not crash and burn but grows older wiser and productively forgetful as he reimagines his boyhood to create the story of his life
