On Terrorism And Combating Terrorism:

Combating Terrorism William C. Banks, Renée de Nevers, Mitchel B. Wallerstein, 2008 Countering terrorism tops the list of America's devilish set of problems Americans deal with terrorism and the threat of terrorism through enhanced investigative tools in hopes of interdicting terrorism before it strikes as a law enforcement issue as a matter for international cooperation and diplomacy and as a species of war best fought by the military These approaches are not mutually exclusive nor are they exhaustive Nor have they or will they be successful all of the time But as a central focus of U S national security strategy the stakes couldn't be higher In ten comprehensive chapters Combating Terrorism discusses tools and tactics for dealing with this ever changing challenge with a focus on how they operate in the real world Additionally readers are encouraged to explore why terrorists might strike and what might be done to ameliorate root causes The authors also discuss the dynamics of homeland security planning and recovery with an examination of the crucial role of the media and our government's public affairs function in crisis situations Each chapter features a series of case studies designed to give students a quick study of actual terrorist actions and the counter strategies at work offering further insight into the complexities of combating terrorism

Terrorism and Counter-terrorism Thomas A. Imobighe, A. N. T. Eguavoen, 2006 Seven Africanist scholars from the African Strategic and Peace Research Group in Nigeria here address the threat of terrorism in the context of the global strategic climate The study is against the background of the altered shape of the global security equation and the devalued utility of the notion of security through state centric military preparedness They posit that failure to grasp its exact nature is leading to the spread to parts of Africa hitherto regarded as relatively safe Further the adverse socio political conditions on the continent have increased Africa's vulnerability They examine areas where the experiences of other regions are relevant providing both a regional and global context Professor Thomas Imobighe is Director of the Centre for Strategic and Development Studies at Ambrose Alli University Edo State Dr Agatha Eguavoen is Reader and Associate Professor in the Department of Sociology at Ambrose Alli University Edo State
