The S. Michael's Hymnal, 1868 T.P.'s Weekly, 1905 Michael Jackson Shawn Henning, 2010-06

Shawn Henning's new book is a powerful and overwhelming tribute and legacy to Michael Jackson. In one book, he's collected love letters, reflections, eulogies, poems, essays, and drawings from people throughout the world who have a special appreciation for the King of Pop, Michael Jackson. I was particularly impressed at the diversity of material from so many different countries and cultures— all of it heartfelt and illuminating. In We Love You More, we learn about the many different ways that Michael Jackson affected people from all walks of life. The participants talk about how Michael's music, creativity, and public example affected their lives and helped them to be better people. The contributions are a wonderful cathartic output to help to come to terms with the loss of Michael's huge talent. They will not only comfort those who have written them but those who read them. People will learn about the experiences they have in common with people throughout the world who followed Michael's career: his music, his good deeds, and the example he set for this generation and generations to come. The book will also be of comfort to Michael's own family. They will see that the spirit of Michael will continue in people everywhere and in many ways and for many reasons. It's also fascinating to learn what people have to say about different songs and what they meant to their lives. I'm impressed by the diverse elements in the book, from eulogies to memories to poems and beautiful drawings and paintings and even photo montages at the end. Mr. Henning, you've done a wonderful service to the Michael Jackson fan community, and I commend you. Sincerely yours, Larry Nimmer

Passing: A Memoir of Love and Death Michael Korda, 2019-10-08

In the tradition of The Year of Magical Thinking comes a legendary editor's unflinching love song about his radiant wife, Margaret, and her battle with cancer. It was a warm April in Pleasant Valley when Margaret Korda, normally a fearless horsewoman, dropped her horsewhip while she was riding. Such a mild slip was easy to ignore, but when other troubling symptoms accumulated, she confided to her husband, Michael, "I think something serious is wrong with me." Within a few rapid weeks, the fiercely independent former fashion model was diagnosed with brain cancer, while Michael, once reliant on her steeliness, became her caregiver, deciphering bewildering medical reports and packing her beloved toiletries for the hospital. An operation performed by a renowned surgeon allowed Margaret to ride her favorite competition horse, Logan, a few more times, but Margaret's tumors quickly returned, leaving her to grapple with the reality of impending death. In rapturous prose, Korda, a modern-day Orpheus, braids her heroic story with heartrending details of their final year together Passing a tender memoir is a testament to the transcendent possibilities of love The Living Age ,1853 The Nation ,1894 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
