documents that can serve as a reference for researchers students and the general public particularly in tandem with Gary Okihiro's 2001 The Columbia Guide to Asian American History They were selected to illuminate issues and events of lasting historical significance for a range of Asian American ethnic groups The arrangement is chronological from before 1900 through 2000 Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com The Vietnamese American 1.5

Generation Sucheng Chan, 2006 Riveting stories by refugees who fled Vietnam The Vietnamese Diaspora in a Transnational Context, 2022-02-14 The Vietnamese diaspora is now a truly global diaspora This collection one of the first of its kind traces the Vietnamese diaspora's multifaceted roots in late 19th and early 20th century French colonialism the end of the War in Vietnam and economic migrations to fellow communist states in the 1970s and 1980s Out of these migrations Vietnamese communities have now formed in many of the major immigrant receiving countries around the world This collection traces the connection between the historically traumatic forms of dispersal from Vietnam and today's transnational Vietnamese communities It considers questions about how conditions of exit from Vietnam shape Vietnamese diaspora identities and patterns of settlement and economic integration It also addresses questions of how memory politics shape the ways in which various segments of the Vietnamese diaspora engage with contemporary Vietnam and shape what is now an intergenerational diaspora Contributors are Tamsin Barber Gisele Bousquet Tuan Hoang Gertrude H welmeier C N Le Nathalie Huynh Chau Nguyen Vic Satzewich Ivan Small Gra yna Szyma ska Matusiewicz and Anna Vu Vietnam War Refugees in Guam Nghia M. Vo, 2022-04-06 More than 130 000 South Vietnamese fled their homeland at the end of the Vietnam War Tens of thousands landed on the island of Guam on their way to the U S Many remained there Guamanians and U S military personnel welcomed them Funded by a 405 million Congressional appropriation Operation New Life was among the most intensive humanitarian efforts ever accomplished by the U S government with the help of the people of Guam Without it many evacuees would have died somewhere in the Pacific Ocean This book chronicles a part of the first mass migration of Vietnamese boat people before and after the fall of Saigon in April 1975 a story still unfolding almost half a century later      Teaching Asian America Lane Ryo Hirabayashi,1998 This innovative volume offers the first sustained examination of the myriad ways Asian American Studies is taught at the university level Through this lens this volume illuminates key debates in U S society about pedagogy multiculturalism diversity racial and ethnic identities and communities formed on these bases Asian American Studies shares critical concerns with other innovative fields that query representation positionality voice and authority in the classroom as well as in the larger society Acknowledging these issues twenty one distinguished contributors illustrate how disciplinary and interdisciplinary approaches to Asian American Studies can be utilized to make teaching and learning about diversity more effective Teaching Asian America thus offers new and exciting insights about the state of ethnic studies and about the challenges of pluralism that face us as we move into the twenty first century      Beyond the Borders Deborah L. Madsen,2003-08-20 This book challenges the boundaries of postcolonial theory Focusing on American literature it examines how America s own imperial history has shaped the literature that has emerged from America from Native American Latino Black and Asian American writers They contrast this with postcolonial literature from countries whose history has been shaped by American colonialism from Canada Central America and the Caribbean to Hawaii Indonesia and Vietnam It explores questions about national identity and multiculturalism why for instance is a Native writer categorised within American literature if writing on one side of the border but as Canadian and postcolonial if writing on the other This is a challenging collection that raises questions not only about the boundaries of postcolonial theory but also about ethnicity and multiculturalism and the impact of immigration and assimilation      Encyclopedia of Asian-American Literature Seiwoong Oh,2015-04-22 Presents a reference on Asian American literature providing profiles of Asian American writers and their works      Asian American Short Story Writers Guiyou Huang,2003-06-30 Asian America has produced numerous short story writers in the 20th century Some emerged after World War II yet most of these writers have flourished since 1980 The first reference of its kind this volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 49 nationally and internationally acclaimed Asian American writers of short fiction Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a survey of the writer s critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Writers include Frank Chin Sui Sin Far Shirely Geok lin Lim Toshio Mori and Bharati Mukherjee An introductory essay provides a close examination of the Asian American short story and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading      Of Vietnam J. Winston,L. Chau-Pech,2001-12-06 A rich space of criticism and document Of Vietnam moves contemporary figurings of Vietnam out of the nostalgic enclaves of the past and the stagnant places of a mythological present into the rich potential of our historical epoch This provocative book is the first to bring together works by photographers established and unpublished writers poets and artists from Vietnam and its diasporas and critical pieces by scholars of anthropology art history history and literary and cultural studies Focusing on issues of identity displacement language sexuality and class their contributions challenge and encourage readers to experience the multiplicity of experiences that make up the fabric of identity

Routledge Handbook of the Vietnamese Diaspora Nathalie Huỳnh Châu Nguyễn, 2024-03-14 The Routledge Handbook of the Vietnamese Diaspora presents a comprehensive overview and analysis of Vietnamese migrations and diasporas including the post 1975 diaspora one of the most significant and highly visible diasporas of the late twentieth century This handbook delves into the processes of Vietnamese migration and highlights the variety of Vietnamese diasporic journeys trajectories and communities as well as the richness and depth of Vietnamese diasporic literary and cultural production The contributions across the fields of history anthropology sociology literary studies film studies and cultural studies point to the diversity of approaches relating to scholarship on Vietnamese diasporas The handbook is structured in five parts Colonial legacies Refugees histories and communities Migrant workers international students and mobilities Literary and cultural production Diasporas and negotiations Offering multiple cutting edge interpretations representations and reconstructions of diaspora and the diasporic experience this first reference work of the Vietnamese diaspora will be an invaluable tool for students and researchers in the fields of Asian Studies Asian American Studies Ethnic Studies Refugee Studies Transnational Studies and Migration and Diaspora Studies     The Politics of Survival in Academia Lila Jacobs,José Cintrón,Cecil E. Canton,2002-11-19 This volume presents the personal accounts of African American Asian American and Latino faculty who use narratives of struggles to describe the challenges they faced in order to become bona fide members of the U S Academy These narratives show how survival and success require a sophisticated knowledge of the politics of academia insider knowledge of the requirements of legitimacy in scholarly efforts and resourceful approach to facing dilemmas between cultural values traditional racist practices and academic resilience The book also explores the empowerment process of these individuals who have created a new self without rejecting their enduring self the self strongly connected to their ethno racial cultures and groups Within the process of self redefinition this new faculty confronted racism sexism rejection the clash of cultural values and structural indifference to cultural diversity The faculty recounts how they ultimately learned the skillful accommodation to all of these issues It is through the analysis of survival and self definition that women and faculty of color will establish a powerful foothold in the new academy of the twenty first century     War Stories Philip Dwyer,2016-11-01 Although war memoirs constitute a rich varied literary form they are often dismissed by historians as unreliable This collection of essays is one of the first to explore the modern war memoir revealing the genre s surprising capacity for breadth and sophistication while remaining sensitive to the challenges it poses for scholars Covering conflicts from the Napoleonic era to today the studies gathered here consider how memoirs have been used to transmit particular views of war even as they have emerged within specific social and political contexts     The Distant Shores of Freedom Subarno Chattarji,2019-11-18 The Distant Shores of Freedom analyses literary works in English written by Vietnamese refugees in the US Fiction and memoirs by Vietnamese Americans recover stories and memories that are often different from mainstream American ones and that difference enables readers to think of the US war in Vietnam from perspectives that are missing in mainstream representations Dwelling not only on the war and its aftermaths Vietnamese American writings also ponder over the existential issues of exile the idea of home the pain of marginality and racism the question of community formation within the US and the complexity of diasporic lives Subarno Chattarji raises critical questions such as who gets to speak and write and to what ends and purposes Who reads Vietnamese American writings and how can we account for these publications in the US over a period of time What can and cannot be written or spoken What is remembered and what is silenced What traumas and memories are articulated These questions point towards a larger context of diaspora studies as well as the rituals of cultural memory that complicate our understanding of the Vietnam War and its aftermaths     Edinburgh Companion to Twentieth-Century British and American War Literature Adam Piette,2012-03-07 The first reference book to deal so fully and incisively with the cultural representations of war in 20th century English and US literature and film The volume covers the two World Wars as well as specific conflicts that generated literary and imaginativ      Unsettled Visions Margo Machida,2009-01-23 A study of how artists of diverse Asian heritages and generational backgrounds use their artwork to articulate complex notions of identity and identification as Asians living in the United States      Keeping Faith Jeffrey M. Burns, Ellen Skerrett, Joseph M. White,2006-09-01 The Catholic Church in the United States has always been an immigrant church from the earliest arrivals of the Spanish and English to the influx of Irish Germans Italians and other Europeans in the nineteenth century to the most recent arrivals from the Philippines and Vietnam Over two centuries countless laymen and laywomen worked with priests and religious to build and support churches and schools laying the foundation for the Catholic Church in the United States The wealth of original documents and photographs in Keeping Faith provides as no other source does a thorough and compelling portrait of these immigrants and their impact on the American Catholic institutions and American Catholic experience
