Mercieca, 2013-02-11 One of the classroom assistants Irene decided to tell Ruth a story around the giving of invitations for her birthday party while she was feeding her Mummy Sylvia was going to give a big party to celebrate Ruth's birthday and a number of guests were to be invited amongst them the classroom staff At this point Irene started asking Ruth whether she wanted to invite Duncan Ruth signed no Irene repeated verbally Ruth's sign No then shall we invite Jasmine No again Shall we invite Irene No also Shall we invite Ritienne Again a negative answer Shall we invite Joanne Yes Irene said you only want Joanne at your party And Ruth put her hand in front of her chest and laughed moving her right leg in the air an action which she normally does when enjoying herself The teaching staff were suddenly involved and very interested in this play and asked Irene to go through the story with Ruth all over again They suggested that this time Irene should change the sequence of their names recounted to Ruth And so she did But once more Ruth only invited Joanne for her birthday party The whole process was repeated several times still with Joanne being the only person chosen from the school staff The teaching staff now was participating and commenting on Ruth's responses They tried to reason with Ruth in vain and persuade her in various ways to change her mind Their arguments were similar to the following You say no to Jasmine but she is the one who escorts you home everyday now is that fair And Duncan who loves you so much and spends so much time with you don't you want to invite him to your party The staff members became concerned at Ruth's refusals and not a little offended There were moments when Joanne was trying to excuse herself and explain why she thought that Ruth would choose her She tried to convince the others that Ruth was only joking that in reality she does want to invite all of them p 140 This book addresses the question of agency that children with profound and multiple learning disabilities PMLD have in educational contexts When children have such severe impairment the idea of their agency often does not cross the mind of adults around them However this book draws upon the work of Jacques Derrida Félix Guattari and Gilles Deleuze in relation to nine stories on engaging with children with PMLD showing to readers the profound influence that children have upon the lives and actions

Once upon a Time in the West Jan Zwicky, 2023-05-15 Western civilization is over So begins Jan Zwicky's trenchant exploration of the root of global cultural and ecological collapse a way of thinking that is also linked to some of the West's most noted achievements The Renaissance merged imperial enterprise with Islamic algebra and recently recovered Greek mathematics to precipitate mechanized industry and resource extraction these in turn made possible the growth of capitalism the military industrial complex and Big Technology Despite its self image as objective Zwicky argues the West s style of thought is not politically neutral but intensely anthropocentric It has led those who adopt it to regard the more than human world as nothing more than timber licences and drilling sites where value is not recognized unless it is monetized Oblivious to context and blind to big picture thinking it analyzes mechanizes digitizes and systematizes while rejecting empathy and compassion as distorting influences Lyric comprehension in Zwicky s view offers an alternative to this way of thinking and she provides a wide range of examples Once upon a Time in the West documents how a narrow epistemological style has left Western thought blind to critical features of reality and how the terrifying consequences of that blinkered vision are now beginning to unfold

Once Upon a Time Peter Kivy, Aaron Meskin, 2019-08-07 Once Upon a Time is a collection of essays in the philosophy of literature with two central themes the significance of story telling for us and the question of whether the novel perhaps the art form most closely associated with story telling is a legitimate source of human knowledge Leading philosopher of art Peter Kivy explores why human beings are so enthralled by being told stories and whether story telling is a significant source of knowledge Starting with a study of Aristotle s Poetics Kivy then undertakes a critical discussion of Noel Carroll s suggestion that our interaction with the artists of the past is a kind of conversation He goes on to defend the thesis that one of the legitimate artistic pleasures we take in novel reading is the acquiring of knowledge and furthermore that the silent reading of a novel is a kind of performance making the novel one of the performing arts The volume concludes with a chapter about jokes and in particular whether it is immoral to tell or be amused by an immoral joke This volume of essays is a must read for anyone seriously interested in literature and the conceptual problems it may raise for philosophers
