Once Upon A Dinkelsbuhl:

Once Upon a Dinkelsbühl Patricia Lee Gauch, Tomie De Paola, 1977-01-01 A retelling of the German legend in which the children of medieval Dinkelsbühl confront the leader of the Swedish soldiers plundering their town The Worlds of Tomie dePaola Barbara Elleman, 2021-03-09 Barbara Elleman's insightful biography on Tomie dePaola captures the essence of the beloved author/illustrator through engaging stories, childhood photos, countless illustrations, and thoughtful analysis of decades of celebrated books. Tomie dePaola is one of the best known and most beloved creators of books for children. His art and his stories, which are filled with imagination, humor, grace, and curiosity, represent a love of life that is reflected in everything he does. Barbara Elleman's exploration of Tomie dePaola's career takes a fascinating look at the many worlds dePaola has brought to life through his work, from autobiographical memories to folktales, religious stories, nursery rhymes, and more, including, of course, the inventive world of his most famous character, Strega Nona. Originally published in 1999 and filled with evocative artwork, captivating photographs, and heartwarming anecdotes, this comprehensive book has been updated to cover two new decades of dePaola's creativity. Elleman's thoughtful narrative brings a fresh appreciation to the work of a unique author/illustrator, one who is a true legend of children's literature and a source of lasting joy for generations of readers, young and old.

Cooking Up World History Suzanne I. Barchers, Patricia Marden, 1994-02-15 Take students on a culinary trip around the world and introduce them to other cultures through the recipes, research, readings, and related media offered in this tasty resource. More than 20 countries and regions frequently studied in elementary and middle schools are represented. Each chapter has a brief introduction that describes the cookery of a culture, five to six recipes that provide a complete meal, research questions that connect the culture and food to history, and an annotated bibliography of reading resources and media. Great for social studies and for multicultural extensions. Grades K-6

Inventing a Classroom Kathryn F. Whitmore, Caryl G. Crowell, 1994 What are the patterns of teaching and learning that make a classroom holistic? How do children invent oral and written language? How do they create the culture and curriculum of a classroom? How does the spirit of community and collaboration develop among children and teachers? What are the relationships between literacy, schooling, and socialization as they form among the children? These are a few of the broad questions that Kathy Whitmore and Caryl Crowell answer in this absorbing portrait of Caryl's third-grade classroom, the Sunshine Room. Over the span of a school year, we watch the students in this bicultural classroom, within a bilingual working-class neighborhood, work and develop together as a community of learners. It is the story of how the Sunshine Room, like many whole language classrooms, invents itself and how, in this process, the children themselves are continually inventing oral and written language, culture, and curriculum. In two separate, collaborative voices, the authors carry readers through several critical events in the life of the classroom, the process through which the children and the teachers negotiate the curriculum.
