One Christmas Eve:

The Short Stories Langston Hughes, 2002 For the first time in many years Langston Hughes's published collections of stories are now available in a single book Included in this volume are Ways of White Folks originally published in 1934 Laughing to Keep from Crying originally published in 1952 and additional stories from Something in Common and Other Stories originally published in 1963 as well as previously uncollected stories These fictions carefully crafted in the language Hughes loved manifest the many themes for which he is best known We meet and come to know many characters black and white young and old men and women all as believable as our own families friends and acquaintances Hughes's stories portray people as they actually are a mixture of good bad and much in between In these short stories as in the Simple stories the reader enjoys Hughes's humor and irony The stories show us his inclination to mock himself and his beloved people as much as he ridicules the flaws of those who belittle his race His genuine characters interact and realistically bring to life this era of America's past By maintaining the form and format of the original story collections this volume presents Hughes's stories as he wanted them to be read This volume will be an invaluable addition to the library of anyone interested in African American literature generally and the fiction of Langston Hughes specifically

New Windmills Collections: from the Four Corners Mike Royston, 2007-04-02 Collection consists of stories from Britain with stories from other countries cultures and literary traditions the stories from the western world mainly the UK are paired by theme or genre with stories from other parts of the globe This helps students get their bearings on literature which may otherwise seem alien to their interests and reading experience The collection includes nineteen fables folk tales and modern stories to make multicultural fiction to students of all ages and abilities

Wroblewski, 2017-05-03 Take a step back and look into the experiences of a little girl growing up in Detroit with her two older sisters When the Shrine Circus was in town her dad brought home clowns in costume a bear trainer and a trapeze artist The adventures of the author and her sisters at boarding school The tragedy of losing her daughter Julie in a head on collision leaving a young husband and two little boys You'll laugh at the incident of the elephant on the roof the wasp and the negligee and the police almost arresting Santa Clause The happenings at their son Steve's wedding was so unusual and funny it could be an SNL skit The antics of a grandmother who seemed to have no filter when it came to her off hand remarks You'll learn why this family loves Michigan and especially their beloved hometown Detroit

The Trials and Treasures of Life Naomi Tomlinson, 2014-09-29 Most of my poems are happy ones I have always written to express my emotions or moods Contentment was written on the way to Sedona Arizona I was with a couple of widows one of whom had just lost her husband I lost my companion twelve years ago My contentment did not come easily or swiftly They Still Dance describes my feelings after watching a couple from our nursing home as they waltzed out on the dance floor Together Again was written for my cousin and my friend who have rekindled their romance They were childhood sweethearts then went separate ways Now in their seventies they are in a serious relationship Most of my poems are personal or a result of an observation I love sharing them with friends Modern Death in Irish and Latin American Literature Jacob L. Bender,2020-09-22 This comparative literature study explores how writers from across Ireland and Latin America have both in parallel and in concert deployed symbolic representations of the dead in their various anti colonial projects In contrast to the ghosts and revenants that haunt English and Anglo American letters where they are largely either monstrous horrors or illusory frauds the dead in these Irish Latinx archives can serve as potential allies repositories of historical grievances recorders of silenced voices and disruptors of neocolonial discourse The United States Catalog Mary Burnham,Carol Hurd,1928 Haunted Experiences in Hastings and Beyond Tina Brown,2015-09-20 In 1993 Tina Brown researched and created the Hastings Old Town Ghost Walk Over the many years of guiding visitors to Hastings around the haunted passageways of the Old Town of Hastings Tina has collected more stories from visitors from across the World In addition to the ghost stories that there just isn't time to include in the tour this book also includes some of these stories that have been collected from visitors over the years from places as far afield as Poland Sweden Germany Bulgaria and the Czech Republic There are also a number of feline ghostly experiences that Tina has collected from a number of cat owners in the UK Find out about these haunted experiences in Hastings and beyond The Ladies' Repository ,1869 Ungraded ,1915 *Great Britain. Willa Cather Remembered L. Brent Bohlke,Sharon Hoover,2002-01-01 The Willa Cather whom friends and acquaintances knew is not well known to contemporary readers Bourgeois and midwestern she was not a member of the Social Register society like Edith Wharton nor of the avant garde or expatriate circles as was Gertrude Stein nor was she a member of the lost generation of the younger F Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway In the 1920s Cather turned fifty and was intent on fully developing her talent writing six major novels during that decade Willa Cather Remembered comprises reminiscences of the author written between the 1920s and 1980s by people ranging from close friends to journalistic observers and acquaintances The materials are drawn from newspapers and journals portions of books and a few previously unpublished personal letters or reflections Many of the writers knew Cather for many years others knew her at a particular time and place and a few only saw her in passing Some are celebrities such as Truman Capote others are lesser known but important names such as Henry Seidel Canby editor of the Saturday Review of Literature and Fanny Butcher editor of the Chicago Tribune book section A few of the commentators though they may have respected Cather in one way or another are highly critical of her others are unabashed admirers All however present Cather as a memorable character with an unmistakable presence

These recollections by people who knew Cather throughout the course of her professional life will acquaint readers with the woman who incited one classmate at the University of Nebraska to say I don't know if I like Willie but she's never dull
