1918 Catharine Arnold, 2018-08-28 Before AIDS or coronavirus there was the Spanish Flu Catharine Arnold s gripping narrative Pandemic 1918 marks the 100th anniversary of an epidemic that altered world history In January 1918 as World War I raged on a new and terrifying virus began to spread across the globe In three successive waves from 1918 to 1919 influenza killed more than 50 million people German soldiers termed it Blitzkatarrh British soldiers referred to it as Flanders Grippe but world wide the pandemic gained the notorious title of Spanish Flu Nowhere on earth escaped the United States recorded 550 000 deaths five times its total military fatalities in the war while European deaths totaled over two million Amid the war some governments suppressed news of the outbreak Even as entire battalions were decimated with both the Allies and the Germans suffering massive casualties the details of many servicemen s deaths were hidden to protect public morale Meanwhile civilian families were being struck down in their homes The City of Philadelphia ran out of gravediggers and coffins and mass burial trenches had to be excavated with steam shovels Spanish Flu conjured up the specter of the Black Death of 1348 and the great plague of 1665 while the medical profession shattered after five terrible years of conflict lacked the resources to contain and defeat this new enemy Through primary and archival sources historian Catharine Arnold gives readers the first truly global account of the terrible epidemic Christian Petzold Marco Abel, Aylin Bademsoy, Jaimey

Fisher, 2023-06-23 Christian Petzold b 1960 is the best known filmmaker associated with the Berlin School of postunification German cinema Identifying as an intellectual Petzold self consciously approaches his work for both the big and the small screen by weaving critical reflection on the very conditions of contemporary filmmaking into his approach Archeologically reconstructing genre filmmaking in a national film production context that makes the production of genre cinema virtually impossible he repeatedly draws on plots from classic films including Alfred Hitchcock s in order to provide his viewers with the distinct pleasures only cinema can instill without however allowing his audience the comforts the cinema of identification affords them Including thirty five interviews Christian Petzold Interviews is the first book in any language to document how one of Germany s best known director s thinking about his work has evolved over the course of a quarter of a century spanning his days as a flailing student filmmaker in the early 1990s in postunified Germany to 2020 when his reputation as one of world cinema s most respected auteurs has been firmly enshrined The interviews collected here thirty of which are published in English for the first time highlight Petzold's career long commitment to foregrounding how economic operations affect individual lives. The volume makes for a rich resource for readers interested in Petzold's work or contemporary German cinema but also those looking for theoretically challenging and sophisticated commentary offered by one of global art cinema's leading figures. The Rough Guide to Provence & the Cote d'Azur (Travel Guide with eBook) Rough
