Popular Culture Users Guide Canadian:

Popular Culture Susie O'Brien, Imre Szeman, 2013-03-15 Popular Culture A User's Guide is an introduction to the critical study of popular culture. The text enables readers to examine parts of the contemporary cultural landscape that they may have been looking at all along without really analysing. Popular Culture seeks to create a level of awareness that goes beyond our everyday intimacy not only to make readers aware of the underlying socioeconomic structures that determine the shape of media and by extension consciousness but also to recognize the many ways that popular culture manages to manoeuvre around these structures giving students the tools to understand their role not just as consumers but also as agents of popular culture. This book reflects a diversity of pop cultural sources but just as importantly provides an interesting uniquely Canadian perspective on Western pop culture that emerges out of Canada's specific structural relationship to the mythical pop cultural centre of America.

Popular Culture Imre Szeman, Susie O'Brien, 2017-09-05 Popular Culture A User's Guide International Edition ventures beyond the history of pop culture to give readers the vocabulary and tools to address and analyze the contemporary cultural landscape that surrounds them. Moves beyond the history of pop culture to give students the vocabulary and tools to analyze popular culture suitable for the study of popular culture across a range of disciplines from literary theory and cultural studies to philosophy and sociology. Covers a broad range of important topics including the underlying socioeconomic structures that affect media, the politics of pop culture, the role of consumers, subcultures and countercultures and the construction of social reality. Examines the ways in which individuals and societies act as consumers and agents of popular culture.

The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields, genres and periods in Canadian literary studies. The essays in this volume, written by prominent theorists in the field, reflect the plurality of critical perspectives, regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods. The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including:

1. attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism, trauma and memory, citizenship, material culture, literary prizes, disability studies, literature and history, digital cultures, globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism.
2. interest in Indigenous literatures and settler-Indigenous relations.
3. attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada.
4. interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline.
5. a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature.
6. a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary, including an interest in affect theory, mourning, melancholy, haunting, memory and autobiography.

The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous, regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization, market forces and neoliberalism. It includes a distinct section dedicated to

Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole

Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre, 2016-11-14 In the richly interdisciplinary study Challenging Addiction in Canadian Literature and Classrooms Cara Fabre argues that popular culture in its many forms contributes to common assumptions about the causes and personal and social implications of addiction Recent fictional depictions of addiction significantly refute the idea that addiction is caused by poor individual choices or solely by disease through the connections the authors draw between substance use and poverty colonialism and gender based violence With particular interest in the pervasive myth of the Drunken Indian Fabre asserts that these novels reimagine addiction as social suffering rather than individual pathology or moral failure Fabre builds on the growing body of humanities research that brings literature into active engagement with other fields of study including biomedical and cognitive behavioural models of addiction medical and health policies of harm reduction and the practices of Alcoholics Anonymous The book further engages with critical pedagogical strategies to teach critical awareness of stereotypes of addiction and to encourage the potential of literary analysis as a form of social activism

After Globalization Eric Cazdyn, Imre Szeman, 2011-05-03 AFTER GLOBALIZATION Relentlessly remorselessly endlessly we are told there is no alternative to globalization whether our lecturers are bourgeois economists progressive journalists or imaginative litterateurs Eric Cazdyn and Imre Szeman dare to go beyond the standard thinking of the day and query the very heart of mobile capital and its impact on daily life Their alternative vision breathes new life into our sense of evolution and inevitability Toby Miller author of Globalization and Sport and Global Hollywood Cazdyn and Szeman begin with the idea that the current economic crisis has historicized globalization turning it from a process that looked as inevitable as say global warming still does into an episode in the history of capitalism hence the possibility not just of more globalization but of an after globalization And hence also they argue the renewed possibility of an after capitalism In powerful critiques of what they describe as the common sense of capital today they sketch out the terms in which changes more radical than substituting generous and honest leaders for the greedy and dishonest ones we've currently got might begin to be imagined Walter Benn Michaels University of Illinois at Chicago In lively and unflinching prose Eric Cazdyn and Imre Szeman argue that contemporary thought about the world is disabled by a fatal flaw the inability to think an after to globalization After establishing seven theses on education morality nation future history capitalism and common sense that challenge the false promises that sustain this time limit After Globalization examines four popular thinkers Richard Florida Thomas Friedman Paul Krugman and Naomi Klein and considers how their work is dulled by these promises Cazdyn and Szeman then speak to students from around the globe who are both unconvinced and uninterested in these promises and who understand the world very differently than the way it is popularly represented After Globalization argues that a true capacity to think an after to globalization is the very beginning of politics today
