 Robin Theobald, 1989-12-11 Corruption for most of us almost immediately evokes images of the third world especially countries like Nigeria Mexico and India Whilst we may concede that corruption exists in developed countries it is generally thought to be under control Despite such widely held views there is very little hard evidence on the actual extent of corruption in any country This book strives to look behind impressions in an attempt to determine what factors underlie the high profile of corruption in UDCs For an adequate understanding of the phenomenon the global character of corruption is emphasized as well as the necessity of locating within a broader process of economic and social change

Dutch Scholarship in the Age of Empire and Beyond Maarten Kuitenbrouwer, 2013-11-21 How was the Royal Netherlands Institute of Southeast Asian and Caribbean Studies KITLV which at its inception in 1851 had fewer than a hundred members and only one part time employee able to flourish to become around the turn of the twenty first century a modern professional institute with 1 800 members with a staff of more than fifty employees The Institute was founded with support from the highest political and official circles to gather scholarly information about the Dutch colonies in the East and West not least to undergird colonial policy KITLV played an important role in this backed by the Ministry of Colonies and the business world

The Japanese occupation and decolonization led to a difficult process of adjustment for KITLV which was concluded successfully. With its unique collections, publications, research, and its office in Indonesia and involvement in the Caribbean, the Institute has an international reputation. This book is more than a report on 160 years of KITLV history. It is also a history of scholarly practice about the former colonies. These activities and especially the publications of the institute and its prominent members are measured against key terms such as orientalism and imperialism, universalism and relativism. UNDOC, Current Index, 1985. Social Impact Assessment And Monitoring Michael J Carley, Eduardo Bustelo, 2019-05-28. This systematic critical review of more than 600 recent publications in social impact assessment (SIA) and related fields is based on the authors' belief that SIA is more than an analytical technique; it is also a logical and timely response to our ever-growing need for more and better information to facilitate decision making in an increasingly complex world. UNDOC, 1985. Concise Biographical Companion to Index Islamicus Wolfgang Behn, 2004-12-01. This third and last of the three volumes, Who's Who in Islamic Studies, presents the scholarly world at long last with its own biographical encyclopaedia. Taking as a starting point the inventory of authors from the renowned Index Islamicus, the author Wolfgang Behn Berlin has systematically collected numerous data on the lives and works of the tens of thousands of authors listed in the Index Islamicus from 1665 to 1980. This Biographical Companion will be an indispensable reference tool for the serious student and scholar of Islamic Studies.
