Encyclopedia of Muslim-American History Edward E. Curtis, 2010 A two volume encyclopedia set that examines the legacy impact and contributions of Muslim Americans to U S history Toward Our Reformation Mohammad Omar Farooq, 2011-01-01 It is the author's contention that at the heart of the Muslim predicament lies ignorance and or lack of commitment to core Islamic values thus what is advocated throughout this work is a return to what is termed a value oriented approach We further learn that with the passage of time what we today consider to be the Shariah is in effect an original hub enveloped in a labyrinthine shroud of scholastic views and deductions hindering Muslim development and to rely on fraudulent hadith and fallacious implementation of hudud law is not only to betray the spirit of the Qur'an and the Prophet's message but a disastrous exercise Consequences being blatant abuse of the Muslim populace under cover of implementing a bogus Shariah This abuse and misapplication is explored throughout the work Muslims in America Craig Considine, 2018-07-11 This installment in the critically acclaimed Contemporary Debates series uses evidence based documentation to provide a full and impartial examination of beliefs and claims made about Muslim individuals families and communities in the United States Muslims in America Examining the Facts provides an objective overview of the realities and experiences of Muslims in the United States both historically and in the present day and of their relationship with their fellow Americans It surveys the history of American Muslims settlement and integration into the United States explores the dominant social political cultural and economic characteristics of American Muslim families and communities and studies the ways in which their experiences and beliefs intersect with various notions of American national identity In the process the book critically examines the more dominant social and political narratives and claims surrounding American Muslims and their religion of Islam including false or malicious claims about their attitudes toward terrorism and other important issues

Voices of Modern Islam Declan Henry, 2018-06-21 A collection of interviews with over 100 British Muslims to provide insight into what it means to be a Muslim in today's culture and to inform any misguided opinions about Islam Explores the Holy Texts the essence of the religion the different types of Islam and addresses controversial topics such as extremism and Islamophobia

On Islam James V. Schall, 2018-04-23 From Paris to San Bernardino from Orlando to Manchester the Western world has been rocked by shocking mass murders done in the name of Islam since the attack on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon in 2001 This chronology of these and other key events from 2002 to 2018 offers an opportunity to analyze the ongoing conflict between Islamism and the West Author Fr James V Schall S J a renowned political philosopher discusses the difficulty that Europeans and Americans have in recognizing that resurgent Islamic militancy is not just caused by terrorists as if terrorism were some kind of independent movement or mind set Violence has a source No one undertakes it without a cause that is worth in his mind the risk of death Islam is unique in its description of the world within itself which is to live peacefully by the law of Allah and the world outside this sphere which is at war with Islam The main concern of the author is the abiding existence of Islam over time and its constancy in attempting to achieve the goal of worldwide submission to Allah as a political and cultural fact

Crisis in the Muslim Mind AbdulHamid AbuSulayman, 2004-01-01 Across the Muslim world today if anything is self evident across the Muslim world today it is that the Ummah is badly in need of reform On this point it can be stated with confidence that Muslims are agreed Poverty and injustice characterize the face of Muslim lands from the Atlantic to the Pacific Pollution and corruption are the order of the day in the societies where the gulf between them and the developed countries of the world has never been wider Politics in the Muslim world are all too often the politics of deprivation and culture the culture of despair Crisis in the Muslim Mind examines the intellectual and historical roots of the malaise that has encompassed the Ummah and threatens to efface its identity First published in Arabic in 1991 this important work in an abridged English translation is designed to familiarize educated and concerned Muslims with the nature of the crisis confronting them and to suggest the steps necessary to overcome it

Islamic Thought Taha Jabir Al-Alwani, 2006-01-01 For the first time Muslims are faced with a worldwide positivism which is working to use knowledge the sciences and their discoveries and achievements in a manner which severs the relationship between the Creator the created universe and man thereby disregarding the world of the unseen and driving a wedge between science and values Lacking even the most modest store of vital Islamic doctrine on the intellectual level university students and researchers in the Islamic world are confronted with doctrines and philosophies which are presented to them together with a flimsy miserable defense of Islam There is not a single academic institution in the Islamic world in which Islamic thought is taught and in which the Islamic vision is given a deep rooted foundation with the same force and persuasiveness with which Western ideas and the Western vision are taught to students in the West in a coherent comprehensive manner accompanied by seriousness and commitment on the part of all. The book argues that this approach is diametrically opposed to the Islamic perspective and that we must disengage human scientific achievement from positivistic philosophical premises and reemploy these sciences within a systematic epistemological framework based on divine revelation conferring honor upon all forms of knowledge as having been bestowed upon man by their Creator.

Combining anthropological observation with textual and genealogical analysis, he illustrates how the modes of thought and social engagement promoted by these two communities are the outcome of complex intellectual entanglements with modern discourses about science, education, the self, and Muslims' place and responsibility in society. In this way, Reading Islam sheds light on the formation of new generations of faithful and socially active Muslims over the last thirty years and on their impact on the turn of Turkey from an assertive secularist Republic to an Islamic-oriented form of governance.
