Reading With A Smile:

How to Read a Person Like a Book Gerard I. Nierenberg, Henry H. Calero, 1994 This unique program teaches listeners how to decode and reply to non verbal signals from friends and business associates when those signals are often vague and thus frequently ignored

"I Hate Reading" Justin M. Stygles, 2022-09-15 It can take a lifetime to eradicate a reader's shame or it can take one great teacher Shame bound readers want someone to notice them It's true But then what does a teacher do to help students Justin Stygles found fresh answers in Gershen Kaufman's seminal research on shame and applied it to his teaching The results proved to him and now us that taking deliberate actions to is crucial At heart it's about mentoring these fragile readers Yet the beautiful surprise is in store A few shifts in classroom practices changed everything for every reader Learn to Spot all the distress signals including withdrawal perfectionism sweetness Help students see that they are not permanently locked out of a reading life Use assessment instruments to note and celebrate incremental change Plan mini units that develop skills in concert with engagement Design small group experiences that are free of levels and other shame inducing labels
