The Richard & Judy Book Club Reader Helen Cousins,2016-03-03 In January 2004 daytime television presenters Richard Madeley and Judy Finnigan launched their book club and sparked debate about the way people in Britain from the general reader to publishers to the literati thought about books and reading The Richard Judy Book Club Reader brings together historians of the book literature scholars and specialists in media and cultural studies to examine the effect of the club on reading practices and the publishing and promotion of books Beginning with an analysis of the book club s history and its ongoing development in relation to other reading groups worldwide including Oprah s the editors consider issues of book marketing and genre Further chapters explore the effects of the mass broadcast celebrity book club on society literature and its marketing and popular culture Contributors ask how readers discuss books judge value and make choices The collection addresses questions of authorship authority and canon in texts connected by theme or genre including the postcolonial exotic disability and representations of the body food books and domesticity In addition book club author Andrew Smith shares his experiences in a fascinating interview The Kids' Book Club Book Judy Gelman,Vicki Levy Krupp,2007-05-10 The first complete guide for use by adults and children to creating fun and educational book clubs for kids As authors of The Book

Club Cookbook the classic guide to integrating great food and food related discussion into book club gatherings Judy Gelman and Vicki Levy Krupp hear a common refrain from parents librarians teachers community leaders and kids themselves How about writing a book for kids book clubs Indeed in recent years youth organizations parents libraries schools and our local state and federal governments have launched thousands of book clubs for children as a way to counter falling literacy rates and foster a love of reading Based on surveys representing five hundred youth book clubs across the country and interviews with parents kids educators and librarians The Kids Book Club Book features _ the top fifty favorite book club reads for children ages eight to eighteen _ ideas and advice on forming great kids book clubs and tips for kids who want to start their own book clubs _ recipes activities and insights from such bestselling children s book authors as Christopher Paolini Lois Lowry Jerry Spinelli Nancy Farmer Christopher Paul Curtis Andrew Clements Laurie Halse Anderson Norton Juster and many others From recipes for the Dump Punch and egg salad sandwiches included in Kate DiCamillo s Because of Winn Dixie to instructionson how to make soap carvings like the ones left in the knot hole of a tree in Harper Lee s To Kill a Mockingbird this book provides a bounty of ideas for making every kids book club a success Book Clubs Elizabeth Long,2003-08 Long spent years observing and participating in women s book clubs and shows how they have become a vital arena for self information one that has as much currency now as it did a century ago Publicize Your Book (Updated) Jacqueline Deval,2008-07-01 For first time authors or the seasoned pro this is the absolutely essential how to for getting publicity totally updated and expanded This indispensable guide from a book publicity insider offers everything authors must know to assist their publishers in publicizing marketing and promoting their books including Effective networking Defining a target readership Creating pitches for talk shows Getting media coverage Utilizing the Internet and other outlets Preparing for interviews and tours Hiring an independent publicist With totally revised and updated information advice and resources the insiders all agree Read this book Ellen Levine editorial director Hearst Magazines Women's Fiction 1945-2005 Deborah Philips,2006-01-01 The paperback edition of major survey of popular women s fiction by wide range of North American and British writers Empathy and the Novel Suzanne Keen,2007-04-19 Does empathy felt while reading fiction actually cultivate a sense of connection leading to altruistic actions on behalf of real others Empathy and the Novel presents a comprehensive account of the relationships among novel reading empathy and altruism Drawing on psychology narrative theory neuroscience literary history philosophy and recent scholarship in discourse processing Keen brings together resources and challenges for the literary study of empathy and the psychological study of fiction reading Empathy robustly enters into affective responses to fiction yet its role in shaping the behavior of emotional readers has been debated for three centuries Keen surveys these debates and illustrates the techniques that invite empathetic response She argues that the perception of fictiveness increases the likelihood of readers empathy in part by releasing them from the guarded responses necessitated by the demands of real others Narrative empathy is a strategy and subject of contemporary novelists from around the world writers who tacitly endorse the potential universality of human emotions when they call upon their readers empathy If narrative empathy is to be taken seriously Keen suggests then women s reading and responses to popular fiction occupy a central position in literary inquiry and cognitive literary studies should extend its range beyond canonical novels In short Keen s study extends the playing field for literature practitioners causing it to resemble more closely that wide open landscape inhabited by readers

Reading Communities from Salons to Cyberspace DeNel Rehberg Sedo,2011-08-25 Reading is both a social process and a social formation as this book illustrates across centuries and cultural contexts Highlighting links evident in reading communities from literary salons to online environments each essay reflects the rich repertoire of research methods available to reading scholars

Consuming Books Stephen Brown,2006-04-18 The buying selling and writing of books is a colossal industry in which marketing looms large yet there are very few books which deal with book marketing how to texts excepted and fewer still on book consumption This innovative text not only rectifies this but also argues that far from being detached the book business in fact epitomises today s Entertainment Economy fast moving hit driven intense competition rapid technological change etc Written by an impressive roster of renowned marketing authorities many with experience of the book trade and all gifted writers in their own right Consuming Books steps back from the practicalities of book marketing and takes a look at the industry from a broader consumer research perspective Consisting of sixteen chapters divided into four loose sections this key text covers a historical overview the often acrimonious marketing literature interface the consumers of books from book groups to bookcrossing a consideration of the tensions that both literary types and marketers feel With something for everyone Consuming Books not only complements the how to genre but provides the depth that previous studies of book consumption conspicuously lack

Reading Beyond the Book Danielle Fuller,DeNel Rehberg Sedo,2013 This volume offers the first critical analysis of mass reading events and the contemporary meanings of reading in the UK USA and Canada based on original interviews and surveys with readers and event organisers The authors interrogate the enduring attraction of an old technology for readers community organizers and government agencies exploring the social practices inspired by the sharing of books in public spaces and revealing the complex ideological investments made by readers cultural workers institutions and the mass media in the meanings of reading
