Questions in Adolescent Literacy Jill Lewis, 2009-05-04 In each chapter of this unique volume an exemplary teacher collaborates with a prominent scholar to present real world strategies for putting literacy research to work in grades 5-12. These lively dialogues tackle key questions in adolescent literacy including issues of motivation, critical thinking skills, content area writing, differentiated instruction, assessment, English language learning and technology. Suggestions for incorporating adolescents out of school literacies and working with reading specialists and coaches show how to build connections between the classroom and wider communities. In depth portraits of challenges and successes in the classroom, practical instructional tips and stimulating questions for reflection make the book a valuable resource for inservice and preservice teachers.

Building Content Literacy Roberta L. Sejnost, Sharon M. Thiese, 2010-02-26 Secondary teachers will find that this superb resource informs the teaching and learning of their students and provides many research based strategies to enhance reading comprehension and written language in every area. Johnneen Griffin, Director of Secondary Pupil Services, Olentangy Local Schools, Lewis Center, OH. Sejnost and Thiese address the national literacy crisis with a practical guidebook that meets the needs of adolescent learners by focusing on the literacy skills needed for the 21st century. The strategies engage learners and create independence in content area reading. Rusti Russow, Director of Teaching and Learning, Kankakee School District, IL. Increase adolescent learners success in all content areas. Responding to the challenges associated with teaching middle and high school students, this resource offers specific strategies teachers may use to incorporate reading, writing and critical thinking throughout content instruction to increase learning. With step by step instructions, a wealth of examples and numerous student reproducibles, the book presents an approach that secondary teachers can implement across all content areas. Roberta L. Sejnost and Sharon M. Thiese focus on research based practices that increase comprehension and learning while meeting standards including: Techniques that foster the acquisition and retention of specialized and technical content vocabulary; Processes to help students better comprehend narrative and expository texts; Approaches to help students use writing and speaking to process their new knowledge and make it their own; Techniques for promoting the literacies needed to effectively use various media sources; Methods for scaffolding instruction for students with special needs. Building Content Literacy is an ideal resource for delivering developmentally appropriate learning experiences and strengthening adolescent's academic achievement in every content area. English Journal, 2005 Teaching Literacy in Sixth Grade Karen D.
