Hear Her Voice Christine Redwood, 2024-08-01 How does our gender impact our preaching Can women express anger in a sermon Why use a first person narrative sermon structure After preaching for several years Christine Redwood realized both her preaching role models and her theology had come predominantly from men so she spent the next six years researching feminist scholars and their readings of stories from the book of Judges In this accessible book she shares what she has learnt including sample sermons and exercises for preachers wanting to grow in their craft This is essential reading for preachers wanting to amplify marginal voices Resources in Education ,2000

Reading History Sideways Arland Thornton, 2013-09-27 European and American scholars from the eighteenth through the mid twentieth centuries thought that all societies passed through the same developmental stages from primitive to advanced Implicit in this developmental paradigm one that has affected generations of thought on societal development was the assumption that one could read history sideways That is one could see what the earlier stages of a modern Western society looked like by examining contemporaneous so called primitive societies in other parts of the world In Reading History Sideways leading family scholar Arland Thornton demonstrates how this approach though long since discredited has permeated Western ideas and values about the family Further its domination of social science for centuries caused the misinterpretation of Western trends in family structure marriage fertility and parent child relations Revisiting the developmental fallacy Thornton here traces its central role in changes in the Western world from marriage to gender roles to adolescent sexuality Through public policies aid programs and colonialism it continues to reshape families in non Western societies as well General Index to the Journals and Sessional Papers of the Legislative Assembly, Ontario, 1901 to 1912 Ontario. Legislative Assembly, Arthur Henry Sydere, 1912

Reading Feminist Theory Susan Archer Mann, Ashly Suzanne Patterson, 2016 Reading Feminist Theory From Modernity to Postmodernity interweaves classical and contemporary writings from the social sciences and the humanities to represent feminist thought from the late eighteenth century to the present Editors Susan Archer Mann and Ashly Suzanne Patterson pay close attention to the multiplicity and diversity of feminist voices visions and vantage points by race class gender sexuality and global location Along with more conventional forms of theorizing this anthology points to multiple sites of theory production both inside and outside of the academy and includes personal narratives poems short stories zines and even music lyrics Offering a truly global perspective the book devotes three chapters and more than thirty readings to the topics of colonialism imperialism and globalization It also provides extensive coverage of third wave feminism poststructuralism queer theory postcolonial theory and transnational feminisms
