Conceptual separation of humans and natural ecosystems is reflected in the thinking of most natural resource management professions including for estry wildlife management fisheries range management and watershed management Burch 1971 Such thinking can deny the reality of the human element in local regional and global ecosystems Bonnicksen and Lee 1982 Klausner 1971 Vayda 1977 As complex organisms with highly developed cultural abilities to modify their environment humans directly or indirectly affect almost all terrestrial and aquatic ecosystems Bennett 1976 Consequently information for managing watershed ecosystems is incomplete without consideration of human institutions and activities Sociologists have studied the relationships between human societies and the land base or ecosystems on which they depend for over 60 years Field and Burch 1990 These studies are distinguished by 1 a holistic perspective that sees people and their environments as interacting systems 2 flexible approaches that permit either the environment or human society to be treated as the independent variable in analyzing of society environment relations and 3 accumulation of a substantial body of knowledge about how the future welfare of a society is influenced by its uses or misuses of land and water Firey 1990

Human Ecology as in [i.e. An] Interdisciplinary Domain Gerald L. Young,1978 □□□□□ □□□,2006-11-01 Michigan Bunyan Bryant,Elaine Hockman,2011-08-01 Michigan A State of Environmental Justice focuses attention on the byproducts of growth and development in the state of Michigan and describes who wins and who loses Over the years while growth and development have been good for some it has been devastating for others the byproducts of growth and development have threatened the lives of people who breathe polluted air who are exposed to contaminated water and whose children play on polluted soil People affected by toxins must organize to protect themselves their families and their communities from environmental harm Let us be clear right from the beginning We are not against economic growth and development we are against certain kinds of economic growth and development i e growth and development that expose people to unnecessary harm We feel it is possible to have economic growth and development with environmental protection All of this is explored in Michigan A State of Environmental Justice Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1980 Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress.
