Readings In Mass Communication 1995:

Readings in Mass Communication Kimberly K. Massey, 2002 This reader is designed to supplement any core textbook in Introduction to Mass Communication The goal of the reader is to help students think more critically about the media By drawing from a wide variety of sources and political and cultural viewpoints this collection is predicated on the fact that students learn about the media mainly through the media by reading or hearing about media in media publications or broadcasts These articles are drawn mostly from popular and alternative media and take a hard and critical look at the political and social forces that drive media decision making

Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes

Mass Communications Research Resources Christopher Sterling, James K. Bracken, Susan M. Hill, 2016-05-06 This reference book is designed as a road map for researchers who need to find specific information about American mass communication as expeditiously as possible Taking a topical approach it integrates publications and organizations into subject focused chapters for easy user reference The editors define mass communication to include print journalism and electronic media and the processes by which they communicate messages to their audiences Included are newspaper magazine radio television cable and newer electronic media industries Within that definition this volume offers an indexed inventory of more than 1 400 resources on most aspects of American mass communication history technology economics content audience research policy and regulation The material featured represents the carefully considered judgment of three experts two of them librarians plus four contributors from different industry venues The primary focus is on the domestic American print and electronic media industries Although there is no claim to a complete census of all materials on print journalism and electronic media what is available is now too vast for any single guide the most important and useful items are here The emphasis is on material published since 1980 though useful older resources are included as well Each chapter is designed to stand alone providing the most important and useful resources of a primary nature organizations and documents as well as secondary books and reports In addition online resources and internet citations are included where possible

Influences of the Mass Media Roger Haney, 2024-10-09 Useful to both professional persuaders and students of media effects this book presents theories and empirical research on methods of social influence including advertising agenda setting propaganda public relations and public communication campaigns The reader first learns how source credibility affects persuasion and the theories that account for persuasion effects followed by research on the third person effect the belief that others are affected by persuasion attempts but not ourselves A chapter on the effects of advertising follows including effects on children and research on subliminal messages The third chapter presents theories and research on the notion of agenda setting and the finding that while the media may not be overly effective in persuasion it is effective in getting the audience to believe issues covered by the media are the most important facing society The final chapter covers the history of propaganda the development of public relations and the effectiveness of government campaigns such as the Smokey the Bear campaign and various health campaigns

Learning to Read Critically in Language and Literacy Andrew Goodwyn, Andrew W Stables, 2004-09-14 This book has definitely aided my understanding of the processes involved in taking a critical stance and would enable me to pick out and maybe even teach the different facets of critical thinking It has also developed my knowledge in the field of language and literacy education British Journal of Educational Studies Following other volumes in the Learning to Read Critically series Learning to Read Critically in Language and Literacy aims to develop skills of critical analysis and research design It presents a series of examples of best practice in language and literacy education research at a time when literacy development and learning through language are key policy issues This book is an overview of issues in Language and Literacy Education research as well as a guide to appropriate research methods and how to do a literature survey Leading researchers present a research project together with their gloss on why they did it that way what they found or did not find and why the research worked or in some cases did not work The book is intended as a reference and teaching text for taught postgraduate courses in the area of language and literacy This series edited by Mike Wallace supports research based teaching on masters and taught doctorate courses in the humanities and social sciences fields of enquiry Each book is a three in one text designed to assist advanced course tutors and dissertation supervisors with key research based teaching tasks and aims to develop students critical understanding of research literature increase students appreciation of what can be achieved in small scale investigations similar to those which they undertake for their dissertation present students with major findings generalisations and concepts connected to their particular field

Reading Media Theory Brett Mills, David M. Barlow, 2014-06-11 What does the Frankfurt School have to say about the creative industries Does the spread of Google prove we now live in an information society How is Madonna an example of postmodernism How new is new media Does the power of Facebook mean we re all media makers now This groundbreaking volume part reader part textbook helps you to engage thoroughly with some of the major voices that have come to define the landscape of theory in media studies from the public sphere to postmodernism from mass communication theory to media effects from production to reception and beyond But much more than this by providing assistance and questions directly alongside the readings it crucially helps you develop the skills necessary to become a critical informed and analytical reader Each reading is supported on the facing page by author annotations which provide comments dissect the arguments explain key ideas and terminology make references to other relevant material and pose questions that emerge from the text Key features Opening chapters What is theory and What is reading bring alive the importance of both as key parts of media scholarship Pre reading substantial Introductory sections set each text and its author in context and show the relevance of the reading to contemporary culture Post reading Reflection sections summarise each reading's key points and suggests further areas to explore and think about 4 types of annotations help you engage with the reading context content structure and writing style as well as questions to provoke further thought Split into 4 sections Reading theory Key thinkers and schools Approaches and Media Theory in context New to the second edition New chapters on New Media and Audiences as Producers Reading Media Theory will assist you in developing close reading and analytic skills It will also increase your ability to outline key theories and debates assess different case studies critically link theoretical approaches to a particular historical context and to structure and present an argument As such it will be essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students of media studies cultural studies communication studies the sociology of the media popular culture and other related subjects

Readings in Law and Popular Culture

Steven Greenfield, Guy Osborn, 2007-05-07 Readings in Law and Popular Culture is the first book to bring together high quality research with an emphasis on context from key researchers working at the cutting edge of both law and cultural disciplines Fascinating and varied the volume crosses many boundaries dealing with areas as diverse as football based computer games Buffy the Vampire Slayer digital sampling in the music industry the films of Sidney Lumet football hooliganism and Enid Blyton These topics are linked together through the key thread of the role of or the absence of law therefore providing a snapshot of significant work in the burgeoning field of law and popular culture Including important theoretical and truly innovative relevant material this contemporary text will enliven and inform a legal audience and will also appeal to a much broader readership of people interested in this highly topical area

Media, Culture and Society Paul Hodkinson, 2010-10-15

In his beautifully balanced clear and broad ranging account of a fast changing field Paul Hodkinson has successfully brought together myriad perspectives with which to critically analyse today's media culture and media society Sonia Livingstone Professor of Media Media Power and Control which addresses questions of the media and manipulation the construction of news public service broadcasting censorship commercialization and Media Identity and Culture which covers issues of the media and ethnicity gender subcultures audiences and fans The book is notable for Logical and coherent organization Clarity of expression Use of relevant examples Fair minded criticism Zestful powers of analysis It has all of the qualities to be adopted as core introductory text in the large and buoyant field of media and communication studies     Mediapolitik Lee Edwards, 2001 Drawing upon his lifelong study of politics and journalism political historian Lee Edwards offers the first scholarly examination of a powerful new phenomenon in world politics the mass media Edwards argues in his far ranging and innovative work that the media have become as important a factor in determining the course of international affairs and the future of nations as economic prosperity military strength natural resources and national will The author calls this vital new component of world politics mediapolitik He uses case studies from around the world to show how the mass media have influenced and even determined the outcome of major political acts such as the collapse of communism in Eastern and Central Europe the Tiananmen Square massacre in China the ousting of Chilean dictator Augusto Pinochet and the political resurrection of South Africa's Nelson Mandela The author argues that these case studies show that the mass media can either enrich or enslave the human spirit depending upon their moral foundation If the media follow a liberal democratic model as in the United States and Western Europe they contribute to a free and just society If they follow an authoritarian model as in South Africa before Mandela or a totalitarian model as in Saddam Hussein's Iraq or Fidel Castro's Cuba they perpetuate the regime in power and deny the fruits of freedom and democracy to the people Edwards addresses the question of how responsibly the American media the most influential media in the world handle their enormous power Using the results obtained from his survey of 100 leading journalists as well as close analysis of major news stories of the last decade the author confirms the rampant cynicism of the American media and its deleterious effect on American politics and government The solution he suggests is that American journalists must practice moral responsibility and strengthen the liberal democratic model of mediapolitik around the world ABOUT THE AUTHOR Lee Edwards is senior fellow at the Heritage Foundation and adjunct associate professor of politics at The Catholic University of America He is senior editor of The World magazine and author or editor of numerous books including The Collapse of Communism The Conservative Revolution The Power of Ideas The Heritage Foundation at 25 Years and Goldwater The Man Who Made a Revolution PRAISE FOR THE BOOK Mediapolitik is a broad gauged survey of what the mass media is and how it works around the world There is scarcely an issue or debate within media and media watching circles that Mr Edwards does not touch on and analyze with care and precision Reading Mediapolitik is the equivalent of at least a semester's worth of J School and more fun Washington

Times Mediapolitik is superb a much needed comprehensive study of a crucial topic It is full of insight in its analysis and wisdom in its conclusions Peter W Rodman former Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs A revealing study of the mass media s impact on world politics You may not agree with all of his conclusions but Mediapolitik is well worth reading Hal Bruno former political director ABC News Edwards is a sterling advocate for more responsibility in journalism His cogent insights are always worthy of study and debate Stephen Hess The Brookings Institution author of The Little Book of Campaign Etiquette The author s case studies are valuable No one to my knowledge has presented such information and analysis in such a systematic fashion Prof Marvin Olasky Acton Institute A very plausible and reliable overview of the impact of changes in news and entertainment media on the politics of our world The Communication, Media, and Identity Robert S. Fortner,2007 Communication Media and Identity A Christian Theory of Communication is the first comprehensive theoretical look at the nature of communication from a biblical Christian perspective This groundbreaking new work discusses the implications of such a theory for interpersonal relations use of media and the development of digital culture in the wake of the computer It also draws widely from the literature of the secular world critiquing perspectives where necessary and adopting perspectives that are in line with Christian anthropology epistemology and ontology Through this unique lens the reader is able to understand communication as an art as a tool for evangelism and as a unique human activity that allows people to have a stake in the creation It covers both mediated and non mediated forms of communication is sensitive to theological differences within the Christian faith and examines closely the problem of technology and especially digital technology for the practice of communication As the newest book in the Communication Culture and Religion Series Robert Fortner s work illuminates the theological aspects of communication Media/Society David Croteau,William Hoynes,2003 The Third Edition of this popular text provides students with an overview of the entire media process with an emphasis on how social forces influence the media and how media potentially affect society
