Readings in Renewing American Civilization Jeffrey August Eisenach, Albert S. Hanser, 1993 In the Matter of Representative Newt Gingrich United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Ethics, 1997 Between Jesus and the Market Linda Kintz, 1997-07-23 Between Jesus and the Market looks at the appeal of the Christian right wing movement in contemporary American politics and culture In her discussions of books and videotapes that are widely distributed by the Christian right but little known by mainstream Americans Linda Kintz makes explicit the crucial need to understand the psychological makeup of born again Christians as well as the sociopolitical dynamics involved in their cause She focuses on the role of religious women in right wing Christianity and asks for example why so many women are attracted to what is often seen as an antiwoman philosophy The result a telling analysis of the complexity and appeal of the emotions that matter to many Americans highlights how these emotions now determine public policy in ways that are increasingly dangerous for those outside familiarity's circle With texts from such organizations as the Christian Coalition the Heritage Foundation and Concerned Women for America and writings by Elizabeth Dole Newt Gingrich Pat Robertson and Rush Limbaugh Kintz traces the usefulness of this activism for the secular claim that conservative political economy is in fact simply an expression of the deepest and most admirable elements of human nature itself The discussion of Limbaugh shows how he draws on the skepticism of contemporary culture to create a sense of absolute truth within his own media performance its truth guaranteed by the market Kintz also describes how conservative interpretations of the Holy Scriptures the U S Constitution and the Declaration of Independence have been used to challenge causes such as feminism women's reproductive rights and gay and lesbian rights In addition to critiquing the intellectual and political left for underestimating the power of right wing grassroots organizing corporate interests and postmodern media sophistication Between Jesus and the Market discusses the proliferation of militia groups Christian entrepreneurship and the explosive growth and selling of the Promise Keepers

Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1997 Sanction Hearing and Related Materials United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Ethics, 1997 Post-Truth American Politics David Ricci, 2023-10-12 David Ricci has written two books on political stories providing the foundations for Post Truth Democracy Yet the present book is arguably the most important yet The author writes that we need stories to make our way in the world But many stories say from identity politics are necessarily false because they are simplifications of some larger reality However not all stories are equally false or equally harmful Some lead to bad outcomes and it is the responsibility of scholars to counter harmful stories with other stories leading to better outcomes Therefore stories are an especially potent form of political power deserving of scholarly and journalistic attention Readings in American History, 1914 Readings in American History James Alton James, 1911 Readings in American History David Saville Muzzey, 1915 Newt Gingrich John K. Wilson, 1996 This book paints a scathing portrait of the former Speaker of the House as a threat to American democracy The authors accuse him of using nonprofit organizations for illegal political purposes evading of Federal Election Commission rules influence peddling and more

A Caring Approach in Nursing Administration Jan J. Nyberg, 2011-05-18 Current mainstream books and publicity about management and administration in health care are concerned with the takeover of health care by managed care organizations Many provide lots of quick and externally focused answers Many of them are economically driven to the exclusion of humans values ethics and the human spirit of all those who pass through systems as deliverers and receivers of care On the other hand there is a new generation of works that address new forms of administration and leadership works that inspire and evoke foundational changes in health care and forms of organizational leadership and management This work by Dr Jan Nyberg is guided by a lifelong career of administration and management that is informed by deeper human dimensions of caring and more lasting approaches to change than quick fix economic takeovers
