Reading Essays G. Douglas Atkins, 2010-01-25 Approaches abound to help us beneficially enjoyably read fiction poetry and drama Here for the first time is a book that aims to do the same for the essay G Douglas Atkins performs sustained readings of more than twenty five major essays explaining how we can appreciate and understand what this currently resurgent literary form reveals about the art of living Atkins s readings cover a wide spectrum of writers in the English language and his readings are themselves essays gracefully written engaged and engaging Atkins starts with the earliest British practitioners of the form including Francis Bacon John Dryden Alexander Pope and Samuel Johnson Transcendentalist writers Henry David Thoreau and Ralph Waldo Emerson are included as are works by Americans James Baldwin Zora Neale Hurston and E B White Atkins also provides readings of a number of contemporary essayists among them Annie Dillard Scott Russell Sanders and Cynthia Ozick Many of the readings are of essays that Atkins has used successfully in the classroom with undergraduate and graduate students for many years In his introduction Atkins offers practical advice on the specific demands essays make and the unique opportunities they offer especially for college courses The book ends with a note on the writing of essays furthering the author's contention that reading should not be separated from writing Reading Essays continues in the tradition of such definitive texts as Understanding Poetry and Understanding Fiction Throughout Atkins Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume reveals the joy delight grace freedom and wisdom of the glorious essay Two Philip A. Greasley, 2016-08-08 The Midwest has produced a robust literary heritage Its authors have won half of the nation's Nobel Prizes for Literature plus a significant number of Pulitzer Prizes This volume explores the rich racial ethnic and cultural diversity of the region It also contains entries on 35 pivotal Midwestern literary works literary genres literary cultural historical and social movements state and city literatures literary journals and magazines as well as entries on science fiction film comic strips graphic novels and environmental writing Prepared by a team of scholars this second volume of the Dictionary of Midwestern Literature is a comprehensive resource that demonstrates the Midwest s continuing cultural vitality and the stature and distinctiveness of its literature Re-Reading Economics in Literature Matt Spivey, 2020-09-30 In Austrian economic thought human action guides all social and cultural experience For both the real world and for fictional texts this starting point can illuminate literature in new ways and offer valuable insight for literary critics who have previously been beholden to Marxism and other anti capitalist perspectives In Re Reading Economics in Literature A Capitalist Critical Perspective Matt Spivey posits that in its relationship to literature Austrian economic criticism entails a methodology that embraces the following 1 an analytical reading that promotes both the individual artist as the creator of literature and the individual reader as the consumer of literature 2 an understanding of the entrepreneurial quality of literature that capitalism is a system that embraces creativity and evolution in the marketplace and 3 a recognition of subjective value as fundamental to human choice and action both in art and in the real world In addition to the study of the individual Spivey also incorporates the concepts of business cycles government intervention social dynamics and technological evolution in his analysis Scholars of literary studies and economics will find this book particularly useful

Reading Multiple Consciousness Komla M. Avono, 2024-12-15 For over a century the intellectual debate of scholars from African descent has been dominated by the idea of double consciousness spearheaded by W E B DuBois Interestingly with many years of vexatious issues of the encounter between the West and Africa many scholars approached the debate on the basis of the consciousness of the Self and the Other However this idea seems to overlook the multiplicities of being black white Reading Multiple Consciousness Exploring the Complexity of Postmodern Identity suggests a different approach to the issue by taking more steps beyond double consciousness It enriches the debate over race literature and colonization as it offers another way of reading texts This book proposes that the complexity of postmodern identity is more accurately described by a theory of multiple consciousness This study arises out of the necessity of a more nuanced theoretical framework for a younger generation of researchers on both sides of the Atlantic a conceptual approach that does justice to the complexity of their experience Publishing Blackness George Hutchinson, John Young, 2018-05-09 The first of its kind this volume sets in dialogue African Americanist and textual scholarship exploring a wide range of African American textual The Epic Trickster in American Literature Gregory E. Rutledge, 2013-04-26 Just as Africa and the history and work West have traditionally fit into binaries of Darkness Enlightenment Savage Modern Ugly Beautiful and Ritual Art among others much of Western cultural production rests upon the archetypal binary of Trickster Epic with trickster aesthetics and commensurate cultural forms characterizing Africa Challenging this binary and the exceptionalism that underlies anti hegemonic efforts even today this book begins with the scholarly foundations that mapped out African trickster continuities in the United States and excavated the aesthetics of traditional African epic performances Rutledge locates trickster like capacities within the epic hero archetype the epic trickster paradigm and constructs an Homeric Diaspora which is to say that the modern Homeric performance foundation lies at an absolute time and distance away from the ancient storytelling performance needed to understand the cautionary aesthetic inseparable from epic potential As traditional epic performances demonstrate unchecked epic trickster dynamism anticipates not only brutal imperialism and creative diversity but the greatest threat to everyone an eco apocalypse Relying upon the preeminent scholarship on African American trickster heroes traditional African heroic performances and cultural studies approaches to Greco Roman epics Rutledge traces the epic trickster aesthetic through three seminal African American novels keenly attuned to the American Homeric Diaspora Charles Chesnutt's The Marrow of Tradition Richard Wright's Native Son and Toni Morrison's Beloved Richard Wright, New Edition Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a selection of criticism devoted to the work of African American author Richard Wright

Modern American Reading Practices P. Goldstein, 2008-12-22 Philip Goldstein explains the socio historical context of the diverse interpretive practices which make up the humanities in the USA in the 21st century He considers the rise of college educated women minority readers the increased influence of the Universities the media and the dominance of the The Ideologies of African American Literature Robert E. Washington, 2001 This book Universities by the sciences challenges the long held assumption that African American literature aptly reflects black American social consciousness Offering a novel sociological approach Washington delineates the social and political forces that shaped the leading black literary works Washington shows that deep divisions between political thinkers and writers prevailed throughout the 20th Reading Black Books Claude Atcho, 2022-05-17 Learning from Black century Visit our website for sample chapters voices means listening to more than snippets It means attending to Black stories Reading Black Books helps Christians hear and learn from enduring Black voices and stories as captured in classic African American literature Pastor and teacher Claude Atcho offers a theological approach to 10 seminal texts of 20th century African American literature Each chapter takes up a theological category for inquiry through a close literary reading and theological reflection on a primary literary text from Ralph Ellison's Invisible Man and Richard Wright's Native Son to Zora Neale Hurston's Moses Man of the Mountain and James Baldwin's Go Tell It on the Mountain The book includes end of chapter discussion questions Reading Black Books helps readers of all backgrounds learn from the contours of Christian faith formed and forged by Black stories and it spurs continued conversations about racial justice in the church It demonstrates that reading about Black experience as shown in the literature of great African American writers can guide us toward sharper theological thinking and more faithful living
