Hudson, 2018-11-23 The Cold War is often viewed in absolutist terminology the United States and the Soviet Union characterized one another in oppositional rhetoric and pejorative propaganda State sanctioned communications stressed the inherent dissimilarity between their own citizens and those of their Cold War foe Such rhetoric exacerbated geopolitical tensions and heightened Cold War paranoia most notably during the Red Scare and brinkmanship incidents Government leaders stressed the reactive defensive foreign policies they implemented to retaliate against their counterparts offensive maneuvers Only brief periods of d tente gave glimpses into the possibility of concerted peaceful coexistence Yet such characterizations neglect the complexities and rhetorical nuances that created fissures throughout the long standing ideological conflict Grassroots diplomacy rarely coalesced with official governmental rhetoric and often contradicted the discourse emanating from the White House and the Kremlin Organizations such as Women Strike for Peace WSP the Committee for Nonviolent Action CNVA and the Moscow Trust Group MTG defied policy directives and sought to establish genuine peaceful coexistence Traveling citizens posited that U S and Soviet citizens possessed more underlying commonalities than their governmental leaders cared to admit phenomena underscored in events such as the San Francisco to Moscow Walk for Peace Spacebridge programs railed against the Strategic Defense Initiative SDI and proclaimed that figurative and literal links between their country and the Other proved more conducive to public opinion than Star Wars Iron Curtain Twitchers examines such juxtaposing rhetorics through three lexical themes contamination containment and coexistence It analyzes the disparate perspectives of public politicians and private citizens throughout the Cold War s duration and its aftermath to better understand the political cultural and geopolitical nuances of U S Russia relations Vacillating rhetoric among politicians journalists and traveling citizens complicated geopolitical relationships sociopolitical disagreements and cultural characterizations These dialogues are contrasted with the cultural mediums of film and political cartoons to underscore fluctuating Cold War identity dynamics Manifestations of one s own country contrasted with propagations of the Other and indicate that the Cold War lasted much longer and remains more virulent than previously conceived Ed King David Guterson, 2011-10-03 Een succesvolle Amerikaan die een zoekmachine ontwikkelde ontdekt via de machine dat de Oedipus mythe zich in zijn leven heeft herhaald Reading between the Borderlines Gillian Roberts, 2018-12-30 Is Superman Canadian Who decides and what is at stake in such a question How is the Underground

Railroad commemorated differently in Canada and the United States and can those differences be bridged How can we acknowledge properly the Canadian labour behind Hollywood filmmaking and what would that do to our sense of national cinema Reading between the Borderlines grapples with these questions and others surrounding the production and consumption of literary cinematic musical visual and print culture across the Canada US border Discussing a range of popular as well as highbrow cultural forms this collection investigates patterns of cross border cultural exchange that become visible within a variety of genres regardless of their place in any arbitrarily devised cultural hierarchy. The essays also consider the many interests served compromised or negated by the operations of the transnational economy the movement of culture s raw material across nation state borders in literal and conceptual terms and the configuration of a material citizenship attributed to or negotiated around border crossing cultural objects Challenging the oversimplification of cultural products labelled either Canadian or American Reading between the Borderlines contends with the particularities and complications of North American cultural exchange both historically and in the present Gulag Literature and the Literature of Nazi Camps Leona Toker, 2019-08-28 A literary scholar examines survival narratives from Russian and German concentration camps shedding new light on testimony in the face of evil In this illuminating study Leona Toker demonstrates how Holocaust literature and Gulag literature provide contexts for each other especially how the prominent features of one shed light on the veiled features and methods of the other Toker's analysis concentrates on the narrative qualities of the works as well as how each text documents the writer's experience in a form where fictionalized narrative can double as historical testimony Toker also views these texts against the background of historical information about the Soviet and the Nazi regimes of repression Writers at the center of this work include Varlam Shalamov Primo Levi Elie Wiesel and Ka Tzetnik and others including Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn Evgeniya Ginzburg and Jorge Sempr n illuminate the discussion Toker also provides context for references to potentially obscure historical events and shows how they form new meaning in the Beyond Marx and Other Entries David Gleicher, 2017-11-13 Beyond Marx and Other Entries is a truly original book text by David Gleicher author of The Rescue of the Third Class on the Titanic A Revisionist History Liverpool University Press 2006 It explores deep areas of semiotics joined with economics anthropology sociology history and philosophy and political science even Franz Kafka s literary works These are communicated by entries based primarily on Gleicher's actual blog Looking through the crack from 2013 to 2017 No other book quite compares to it but one might equate it to impressionist art or the the one and the many Each entry is independent nothing in one makes even an allusion to another Readers however cannot help but to make connections themselves and develop their own understandings of dystopian possibilities Feeding the Roots of Self-Expression and Freedom Jimmy Santiago Baca, Kym Sheehan, Denise Van Briggle, 2018-11-14 This curriculum based collection of lesson plans is designed to build student confidence for articulating their unique ideas and sensibilities about the world through literary expression For this book Jimmy Santiago Baca one of the foremost poets in America today

collaborates with two National Writing Project Fellows and literacy professionals Kym Sheehan and Denise VanBriggle Together they present a teaching tool that uses poems from Baca's incarceration as a young man along with curricular activities and probing questions crafted to help students heal through writing Each exercise reinforces the theme that a strong grasp of self esteem borne from unique expression lends itself to the student enjoying day to day life at the highest creative and fulfilling level Book Features Draws on the extraordinary life and career of Jimmy Santiago Baca who came to write poetry in prison and now has 28 works in print ranging from a feature movie Blood In Blood Out to his bestselling memoir A Place to Stand Based on the authors combined experience of facilitating hundreds of writing workshops Offers field tested recommendations to help educators inspire and fortify students suffering from doubt or damaged self esteem Includes detailed descriptions exercises and sample poetry to assist teachers and students in the writing process Benjamin Paloff, 2025-04-29 A number of European authors who survived concentration camps ghettos and besieged cities in the middle of the twentieth century chose not to write straightforward memoirs or testimonials but instead to fictionalize their experiences By manipulating narrative time and point of view and altering biographical facts these writers produced literary texts that challenge common notions of what constitutes an appropriate representation of collective trauma How might such works provide a deeper understanding of historical truth than the facts alone What does the literature of the camps reveal about present day spaces of confinement Worlds Apart explores the ethics of representation by reading the works of writers who use the techniques of literary fiction to depict survival in these precarious spaces Benjamin Paloff traces the complex relationship between fact and truth in these texts disentangling writers individual experiences from fictional elements that universalize that experience and in so doing show the camp to be an institution of the present Touring the unusual genre conventions of these works he weighs crucial questions about what constitutes truth in historical representation literature and the popular imagination Reading across Czech French German Polish Russian and Yiddish including lesser known and untranslated works Paloff considers portrayals of the Shoah the Gulag the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising and the blockade of Leningrad Bold nuanced and rich in comparative insight Worlds Apart argues forcefully for the moral urgency of recognizing that the camp is not simply a historical artifact but a basic institution of contemporary society
