Satellite Stevens,2013-05-28 I remember being three years old standing inside my doorway in a checkered red dress My older brothers and sisters were on the porch I heard a shot and a scream Everybody yelled for me to get back in the house My sisters flew inside at the insistence of my mother We watched from the window as police cars came streaming down the road with their lights flashing There were loud sirens Then an ambulance followed I was fighting to get my face to the window so I could see but I wasnt big enough I became frustrated and cried wet tears filling my face so my oldest sister lifted me up Then word got around that the man who was killed was the boy Jasons father who lived up the street I knew Jason and liked him He had a pretty face and a big smile Every time he came by the house and I was standing on the porch he would say hi and call me by my name Sometimes he would say Are you being a good little girl Other times he would say You look very pretty I thought about Jason and how he felt He stood tall and proud and seemed like an old little kid much older than me He seemed caring inside and always dressed nice I never knew my father so I often wondered what it was like to have a father I wondered what a man did in the house Now I wondered about Jason I wondered if he was going to cry I wasnt allowed to go to the funeral but I really wanted to I wanted to see him and make sure he was okay I wanted to tell him I wished those men didnt shoot his father
