The incredible story of an all deaf high school football team s triumphant climb from underdog to undefeated their inspirational brotherhood a fascinating portrait of deafness in America and the indefatigable head coach who spearheaded the team by New York Times reporter and San Francisco Bureau Chief Thomas Fuller The Boys of Riverside is another example of how anyone can achieve their dreams making what appears impossible possible Marlee Matlin Academy Award winner In November 2021 an obscure email from the California Department of Education landed in New York Times reporter Thomas Fuller s inbox The football team at the California School for the Deaf in Riverside a state run school with only 168 high school students was having an undefeated season After years of covering war wildfires pandemic and mass shootings Fuller was captivated by the story of this group of high school boys It was uplifting During the gloom of the pandemic it was a happy story It was a sports story but not an ordinary one built on the chemistry between a group of underestimated boys and their superhero advocate coach Keith Adams a deaf former athlete himself The team and Adams tackled the many stereotypes and seemed to be succeeding Fuller packed his bags and drove seven hours to the Riverside campus The Boys of Riverside looks back at the historic 2021 and 2022 seasons in which the California School for the Deaf chased history It follows the personal journeys of their dynamic deaf head coach and a student who spent the majority of the season sleeping in his father s car in the Target parking lot It tells the story of a fiercely committed player who literally played through a broken leg in order not to miss a crucial game as well as myriad other heart wrenching and uplifting narratives of players who found common purpose Through their eyes Fuller reveals a portrait of high school athletics inspiring camaraderie and deafness in America The Swindoll Study Bible NLT Charles R.
