Sacramental Streams Richard Davenport, 2025-02-04. The church has long seen baptism as one of the means by which God delivers his grace to his people. Many passages in the New Testament detail the value of baptism and indicate its status as one of the primary gifts God gives. At the same time, Jesus' conversation with Nicodemus indicates the benefits of baptism should already be evident. The early church understood this and saw that God had been preparing his people for the sacrament from the very beginning. This book goes back through the Old Testament to draw on the various themes God has presented to inform and instruct his people about the sacrament he would later institute. By examining these themes in detail, it is shown that though baptism is a one-time event in the life of the Christian, the baptized continue to receive its benefits. Baptism not only functions as an ongoing means of God's grace but as the means by which God shapes his people into the holy nation he has called them to be.

The Artistic Vision Alex Sosler, Gary Ball, 2024-07-25. When you look at the world, what do you see? As an artist, your creativity stems from your vision. The problem in the modern world is how often one's imagination is fragmented and reduced between worship and work, the body and soul, the material and the spiritual. Written to practicing artists and those who pastor them, The Artistic Vision encourages artists who long for a greater sense of purpose and a greater sense of wholeness, proposing that seeing the material world as a shadow of spiritual realities will lead them toward an expression that joins faith and practice. Drawing from the Oxford Movement and artistic examples like Christina Rossetti and Flannery O'Connor, Ball and Sosler present a sacramental way of seeing the world the invisible through the visible the spiritual through the material the divine through creation Interspersed with practical vignettes from artists and pastoral reflection The Artistic Vision helps artists regain an enchanted mysterious and reverent vision of life Artists neither have to check their faith at the studio door nor produce kitschy or easy art By creating with a sacramental vision they are seeing the world charged with the grandeur of God and inviting viewers into that participation
